LAHORE CROWDS OUT FOR DEFIANCE

Howrah Bridge Contract For India

BRITISH FIRMS OUT OF PICTURE

Simla Will Stand By Past Assurances

(From Our Special Correspondent)

SIMLA, July 19.

With regard to the representations received by the Government of India recently from the various commercial bodies and the informal talks that have been held between commercial spokesmen and the officials of the Government of India regarding Howrah Bridge, I gather that the sympathetic assurances given by Simla stand. Beyond that, it is not possible to get any statement because, technically speaking, the matter does not rest with the Government of India.

I do not find any ground here to back the suggestion that delay in deciding the matter may be due to the fact that the Chairman of the Board which is to decide the question is in London and may be confabulating with the Secretary of State for India.

The fact of the matter, on the other hand, is that the revised tenders included alternative schemes which the Tendering firms put up, and their consideration involved technical examination, and delay may be accounted for by that.

TOWARDS RATIONALISATION
The authorities here are cognizant of the fact that the Tariff Board, while urging rationalization of the steel and iron industry suggested that Government should embark on large construction schemes to finance this rationalization to take place. Though the Government of India did not see their way to adopt this course, it is apparent that now that an opportunity has occurred, the Government of India would like to see the Tariff Board's recommendation come to fruition.

In fact, the Howrah Bridge contract has already led to a number of leading firms make a combine which is a move in the direction of rationalisation. One can therefore expect that the weight of the Government of India will be thrown in the direction of giving the Bridge work to firms in India.

BRITISH INTERESTS, OUT OF IT?

Yet another factor seems to help this development. The revised tenders, so I hear, show that the British competitors are all quoting high, so that, from the business point of view too, the choice lies between the firms in India and those in foreign countries such as Germany and Belgium. Considering the rigidity with which Indian exports are being kept out of the German market, one need not expect any particular reason why the authorities in India should be anxious to place such a large contract with German Engineering firms.

Unless, therefore, some unforeseen factors were to enter the calculation and abnormal influences were to prevail, it may be anticipated that firms in India will have the pride of building one of the greatest bridges in India and prove the capacity of Indian steel and of Indian talent working hand in hand with British businessmen in this country who have joined hands with Indian firms in an attempt to secure this large order.

Not All Italians Are For War

(Received through Nonfrontier News Service.)

ROME.

As everyone outside Italy knows, we are in the midst of great military activity, not unlikely to involve the nation in disaster without consulting it. As everyone outside does not know, in many Italian cities the civil population, wishes to have nothing to do with war, and the departing soldiers are also irritated by the fact that the people do not furnish them, as they expected, with cakes, cigarettes, and chocolate.

Hundreds of thousands of youth have crowded the barracks, and have paraded the streets with thousands of banners and with martial music. They have forced all by-standers in the streets to uncover their heads in sign of respect and approbation. Your correspondent has been present at many such acts by the "civilizers" of Africa, due to the sound of military fanfares.

PACIFIST TENDENCIES

In contrast to this aggressive spirit, pacifist tendencies are being manifested on all sides among truly heroic young people. Young men have been putting themselves on record among their friends as resolved to die rather than be enrolled as soldiers. These brave ones are motivated by Christian and humanitarian ideals of internationalism.

One aspect of Italy's war preparations seems to have escaped the notice of many outsiders. The country has mobilized about a million of men, of which possibly a quarter million have been sent to Africa. It has long been taken for granted that a few hours' delay in mobilization might mean defeat in the field. At any rate, that country is best prepared which is already mobilized. That is exactly Italy's present status, alone of European Powers. The Italian General Staff regards the mobilization as a great coup brought off under stress of the Abyssinian adventure.

ARMS-MAKER'S INTERESTS.
The dark side, on the other hand, is this: strikes have been in progress in the arms and munitions manufacturers between them have brought the economic condition of Italy to the point where it can only avoid collapse, it seems, by perpetually accelerating its war preparations and war orders.

The masses beaten down by fear of espionage, must outwardly appear to lend their backing, in accord with the first commandment of Fascism, "Il Duce is infallible." But they are not deceived, and are opposed, no matter what appearances may be, to war with Ethiopia.

LATHI CHARGES IN LAHORE

LAHORE CROWD DEFIES BAN

Armed And Lathi Police Guard Thoroughfares And Arrest 30 Ring Leaders

LAHORE, July 19.

In defiance of orders banning meetings and processions, a crowd of 5,000 Muslims emerged from Badshahi mosque and wanted to go in a procession to Shahidganj mosque which was demolished on July 8.

Obviously their purpose was to take possession of the mosque despite the fact that British troops were guarding it since this morning. Armed police and 200 lathi police guarded all thoroughfares leading to the mosque and arrested 30 ring leaders.

The crowd is still squatting in the streets.—A.P.

OFFICIAL VERSION

LAHORE, July 19.

Communique.—At Friday prayers to-day at the Badshahi Mosque some inflammatory speeches were made and while the main congregation dispersed quietly to their homes, a procession was formed, in defiance of orders, by the irresponsible element with the object of marching through the city to the Shahidganj Gurdwara. The police made 33 arrests and the prisoners were successfully despatched to the jail. When the police attempted to make other arrests, a hostile crowd gathered and the police were unable to effect their purpose.

For some time the police were hemmed in by the hostile crowd and Reserves had to be used to extricate them. Three mild lathi charges were made but as the people in the procession lay on the ground the police abstained from use of further force.

The situation at 10 p.m. was that the processionists were still insistent on their original intention to march through the city to the Shahidganj Gurdwara but were being prevented by the police from carrying out their purpose. The crowd did considerable damage to two police vans. The police acted throughout with the most excellent restraint, discipline and endurance in the face of the gravest provocation.—A.P.

At 10-30 p.m. the crowd which

Greek Cabinet Resigns 'En Bloc'

Sequel To Differences Over Question Of Restoration Of Monarchy

ATHENS, July 19

The Greek Cabinet resigned "en bloc" following differences over the question of restoration of monarchy.

Five Monarchist Ministers urged Premier Tsaldaris to state unequivocally whether he favoured monarchy.

Premier Tsaldaris replied that he would make a statement after his visit to Germany where he intended to start on Sunday.

Premier On His Responsibility

"I shall form a government according to my conceptions, I alone being responsible for public affairs" declared Premier Tsaldaris.

General Condylis who favours the maintenance of Republic informed the press, he would support government even if he does not join it.

It is expected that the new Cabinet will be formed in the evening without hitch. It is probable Premier Tsaldaris may take War Ministry in addition to the Premiership. According to press reports a Plebiscite will be held in August in order to hasten the settlement of regime question.—Reuter.

numbered 2,000 were still squatting or lying on the ground. A police force 500 strong was on the spot, while British troops were patrolling the city.

36 ARRESTED.

Further details of the incidents leading up to this stalemate show that after Friday prayers a crowd of 5,000 led by the so-called Third Dictator attempted to march in procession in spite of the police ban. The police under two British Deputy Inspectors General stopped the crowd near the Karim-bux Mosque, but though repeated lathi charges were made the crowd refused to disperse. Thereafter 36 persons including the "Dictator" were arrested. In the general rush made by the crowd towards the police vans when the arrested persons were being put into them, the tyres of two of the vehicles burst and a British Officer fell from a van. A youth was arrested in this connection.

A number of cases of swooning occurred in the midst of the crowd owing to the intense heat. The crowd had swelled considerably by 2.20 p.m. but apart from the above incidents it has been peaceful.—A.P.

SITUATION IN LAHORE AGAIN WORSENS

LAHORE, July 19.

British troops which were posted to guard the Gurdwara on July 8 and which were replaced by the police five days ago have been called back and repositioned near the Gurdwara this morning. This development after yesterday's lull is stated to be due to the expected demonstrations by Muslims after juma prayers this afternoon.

Since the deportation of four leaders earlier in the week, councils in blue shirts are divided. One section, described as the more irresponsible supporters of the Council of Action, is standing out for defiance of Sec. 144 by holding meetings and demonstrations. The other, more responsible section, is advising for holding activities in abeyance till 27th when an important meeting of Muslims including the Ahrar leaders from the whole of the province will be held.

As on Tuesday and Wednesday when a form of open disobedience of orders was practised by a crowd

Party Of British Soldiers Runs Amok?

Raid On Village And Assaults On All, Including Women And Children Alleged

JUBBULPORE, July 19.

One villager has died and twelve others have received injuries as a result of an attack alleged to have been made by a party of about 30 British soldiers this evening in the village of Beda near here.

ATTACK ON WRONG VILLAGE.

It appears that on the evening of the 17th, Private Kennedy of 1st Battalion, King's Regiment, was seriously injured in a scuffle with the villagers of Kurondi and admitted to hospital. His comrades set out to avenge him and reached the village of Beda by mistake and are reported to have assaulted the inhabitants with the above result. No trace has yet been found of the alleged assailants.—A.P.

From inquiries made on the spot, it transpires that on Wednesday last, a British soldier made an attempt to outrage the modesty of a young Chamar girl belonging to village Karundi.

The girl raised a hue and cry which brought the villagers to the scene, who after catching hold of the soldier, roughly handled him.

ASSAULT ON VILLAGERS.

Next day in the evening about 40 soldiers armed with hockey sticks are reported to have raided the village Beda and assaulted everyone who came before them, which resulted in casualties as stated above.

After the soldiers had made their quit, the police appeared on the scene and began investigations, but no arrest has been effected up till now.—United Press.

NO ARRESTS MADE

JUBBULPORE, July 19.

Considerable sensation prevails here over a raid alleged to have been made by some British

BIHAR GOVT. TO PROSECUTE POLICE OFFICERS?

Proceedings Against 40 Sub-Inspectors Launched, Sequel To Disclosures By C. I. D.

PATNA, July 18.

"Indian Nation" states that proceedings have been started against about 40 Sub-Inspectors of Police and some other police men of the district of Saran.

The charge against them is that they suppressed and did not institute proceedings in serious cases but minimised them.

SENSATIONAL DISCLOSURES.

For instance, several dacoities are alleged to have taken place, but there is no mention of them in police papers. Similarly, in several instances, dacoity cases have been entered and investigated into as theft cases only. This is alleged to have been done with the consent of some police officers who have been transferred from this district. Mr. Mehta, the C.I.D. Inspector, is said to be credited with these disclosures.

Inquiries are being conducted by the new D.S.P., B. Baleswar Prasad, who has been recently deputed here. In some cases, the Sub-Inspectors have told the D.S.P. that the witnesses produced before them were found to be tutored by some agencies while a constable had gone to call them (the witnesses). Another grievance in some cases is that, whilst in some cases, the enquiry is being conducted when the officers are here, in the case of others, it is being conducted when they are away.—United Press.

outside the Badshahi mosque, the first group has announced by the beat of drums that prayers in Shahi mosque would be followed by a meeting. In view of this the authorities are alert and police has again been drafted in the vicinity of the mosque. Mounted police are patrolling the city since this morning and the guard at Shahidganj has been reinforced.—A. P.

DEFIED CURFEW ORDER

LAHORE, July 17.

A brother of a member of the Punjab Legislative Council and an Anglo-Indian were among the 21 persons who were arrested last night by the patrolling parties for alleged infringement of the Curfew Order. They were produced to-day before a Magistrate and all except three were sentenced to fines ranging between Re. 1 to Rs. 4.

8 Muslims On Trial

Eight Muslims who were arrested on Tuesday night near Water ryk—flgt ohl hndl hmdrd hdm Works when a crowd of Muslims which was declared unlawful and dispersed by baton charge, were produced before Mr. Teal, Magistrate First Class, under section 145 I. P. C. (forming an unlawful assembly). The court after recording the evidence of the Magistrate who ordered for the dispersal of the mob and a police sub-inspector framed charges against the accused. Some of the accused admitted being members of the unlawful assembly while others pleaded not guilty.

Carrying Of Kirpans

Charges under section 19 of the Arms Act were framed on Wednesday by a local magistrate against two Sikhs who were arrested by the police, it is alleged, carrying two kirpans and a spear each.

A Sikh granthi of a Gurdwara in Ramgarh, a suburb of Lahore was arrested near the Mughalpur Police Station while, it is alleged, carrying two kirpans. Later he was released on bail.—A. P.

Schools Committee In Financial Troubles

But No Truth In Rumour That Teachers Will Be Retrenched Or Deficiency Of Accommodation For Pupils

BOMBAY, Friday. The refusal of the Municipal Standing Committee and the Municipal Corporation to sanction a further grant of a lakh of rupees for the Municipal Schools Committee, seems to have been responsible for a scare in the city that many of the teachers employed in the Municipal Schools would be retrenched.

A further rumour has been spread that there would not be enough accommodation in the Municipal Schools for the primary school going children.

Enquiries made go to show that there is absolutely no foundation for the above rumours, though it is a fact that the refusal of a further grant has put the Schools Committee in some difficulty to manage the affairs of the Municipal Schools in the city.

In the beginning of the year the Schools Committee demanded Rs. 32,52,827 for the expenses for the year 1935-36. But the Standing Committee finding that, if they sanctioned the amount they would not have the requisite statutory surplus, granted only 29 lakhs and asked the Schools Committee to manage within that amount.

They later sanctioned Rs. 96,000. The Schools Committee after effecting the necessary retrenchment found that it was quite essential to have Rs. 31,18,000, which was more by about Rs. 40,000 of the amount granted.

But, in the meanwhile, Government were prepared to take the Development Loan in easier and lesser instalments and this was an unexpected windfall for the Corporation. Immediately the Schools Committee demanded another lakh, but the Standing Committee and the Corporation turned down the proposal.

It is contended by some of the members of the Schools Committee that whatever retrenchment might be effected, it would not be possible to send away any one of the teaching staff, whether permanent, temporary or floating, because, the number of students that have to be taught will remain the same. Hence it is very essential in the interest of proper education that the teaching staff should not be reduced. The Corporation might not grant extra additional expenditure but it must not refuse to give the very essentials.

21 LAKHS THE MINIMUM
There are at present 66,589 students studying in the Municipal Schools and there is accommodation for 70,000. Some more students are expected to join the schools very soon. For this number there are 1841 permanent teachers, 128 non-permanent teachers and 101 half-time teachers.

The minimum that the Schools Committee will have to spend every year, is Rs. twenty one lakhs for the teaching staff; Rs. 1,20,000 for the servants, Rs. 4,50,000 for rent of School premises, Grant in aids to several schools Rs. 1,45,000 and the Municipal Share of the Provident Funds Rs. 1,24,000 and Medical Inspection Rs. 36,000. Besides these there is a yearly increase of Rs. 40,000 as increments in salaries of teachers.

Hence it is stated that since the above amount is quite essential for Municipal Education in the city and since the Corporation would not agree to refuse admittance of students to Schools, which they will have to do, if the Schools Committee do not get the amount they demand, there is every possibility of Rs. 40,000 being sanctioned by the Standing Committee.

The Municipal Schools Committee is meeting this evening to consider the question and they are expected to make a demand for Rs. 40,000.

Shopkeepers' Alertness Foils Attempts By Bogus Customers

BOMBAY, Friday. Some of the City's thieves now appear to have turned their serious attention to musical instruments and appliances. An attempt at stealing gramophone records was, however, foiled yesterday by the alertness of the shopkeepers.

Three Mahomedans went to Messrs. Ghaisas and Co., Girgaum, on the pretext of trying some gramophone records. The salesman of the company showed them some which were not approved of by them. So, he went back to place them in the cupboard, when the men are stated to have decamped with a box of His Master's Voice records. They were, however, chased and arrested.

Similarly, another Mahomedan entered a gramophone dealer's shop at Grant Road and is alleged to have attempted stealthily to remove a box containing a dozen records, when he was cleverly detected by the shopkeeper. He was immediately handed over to the Police.

Fida Hussain and the three others were remanded at the Girgaum Police Court to-day till August 2.

BOY RELIEVED OF NECKLACE

BOMBAY Friday.

How a three-year old boy was cleverly relieved of his gold necklace most unnoticed while walking on the Sandhurst Road with his mother and uncle, was narrated at the Girgaum Court to-day.

The accused, Shanker Gangaram, was produced before the Girgaum Court to-day and was remanded till August 2.

HAWKER'S RUSE FAILS

Attempt To Decoy Children On Pretext Of Giving Sweets Fails

GETS FOUR MONTHS' R. I.

BOMBAY, Friday. Two little boys, aged six and seven, and a girl aged nine, sister of the six-year-old boy, narrated at the Girgaum Court to-day a plain and unvarnished story of how the boys were kidnapped by a young Mahomedan, on the pretext of giving them sweets, while they were playing in the school compound.

They are Jagadish (6) and Nirmala (9), brother and sister and Chandravadan (7), who are studying at the Municipal School, Sandhurst Road.

The accused, Kamruddin Kanji (28), was found guilty of kidnapping Jagadish and Chandravadan and was sentenced to four months' rigorous imprisonment on an aggregate.

The accused pleaded "not guilty" to the charge.

PASSER-BY INTERVENES

Kamruddin Kanji, a hawker in sweets, used to go to Sandhurst Road Municipal School to sell sweets. On July 3 Jagadish, Chandravadan and Nirmala were playing in the school compound at about 10-30 a.m., when the accused came and is alleged to have taken the two boys with him. The girl, however, protested against this and accompanied them, holding her brother's hand.

While they were at Kamatipura a passer-by overheard the girl asking the accused to take them back to their school, and suspected some foul play. He questioned the accused and the latter replied that they were his master's children and that he was taking them to their school.

Nirmala, however, related all that had transpired and the accused was handed over to the Police by the witness.

Pleading "not guilty," the accused said that as the children were accustomed to buy sweets from him they simply followed him to Kamatipura.

Children Must Be Protected

Mr. Spencer, appearing for the prosecution, said that the offence was of a serious nature and the children of the City must be protected from the people of the type of the accused.

The Magistrate, Mr. I. N. Mshtra, remarked that had not the passer-by interfered at Kamatipura, horrible results might have befallen the three little children.

FILM FARE FOR THIS WEEK

"One New York Night" at the Regal starring Una Merkel.

"Blood Feud" at the Minerva.

"Pavitra Lilavati" at the Majestic.

"ONE NEW YORK NIGHT"

At The Regal

A mystery story replete with suspense, loaded with laughs and sprinkled with a delightful romance marks Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's current comedy-drama, "One New York Night," which opens to-day at the Regal Theatre. Introducing a new team to the public, Franchot Tone, romantic leading man and light comic, and Una Merkel, pretty comedienne, are co-featured in this film. The story revolves around a mysterious murder which takes place in a cosmopolitan hotel where a unique cross-section of life is reflected in the various guests who become involved in the crime. Mystery enters when the body of a wealthy broker disappears under unusual circumstances thus catapulting several people into a scandal. A cowman from Wyoming, bent on finding a brunette to marry in the big city, joins a blonde telephone operator in endeavouring to clear the name of a beautiful Russian Countess. His ultimate success is crowned by falling in love with his pretty assistant despite her light tresses. Franchot Tone is cast as the man from Wyoming, Una Merkel as the blonde telephone girl who "gets her man," Conrad Nagel as the private secretary to the deceased broker, and Stefani Duna as the Russian Countess. Also prominent in the cast are Harvey Stephens, Charles Starrett, and Louise Henry. Jack Conway, one of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's hit directors who was responsible for "Viva Villa" directed "One New York Night" from a story by Edward Childs Carpenter.

"KID MILLIONS"

At The Capitol

The banjo-eyed comedian is funnier than ever as a boy Cinderella of the Brooklyn waterfront who turns out to be the sole heir of Professor Wilson, late Egyptologist who left a fortune in buried treasure in Egypt. The presence of several other claimants to the fortune makes the story fast, funny and furious. Chief of these is Thel Merman, as a hard-boiled song-plugger posing as the late Professor's common-law wife, and her bone-headed gangster boy-friend, played by Warren Hymer. Ann Southern and George Murphy furnish the heart interest. The fun begins before the boat-load of treasure hunters even embarks and runs high during the crossing when Ethel and Hymer try unsuccessfully to put Eddie out of the way. Arrived in Egypt, Eddie gets mixed up with the Sheikh, played by Paul Harvey, and his gorgeous Harem of Goldwyn Girls. The Sheikh's not quite bright daughter, Fanya, played by Eve Sully, develops a terrific crush on Eddie and saves him from the boiling oil vats on his promise to wed her. But Eddie wants to get back to his Brooklyn sweetheart and Fanya's jealous fiancé, played by Jesse Block, helps him get away with the fortune in a plane. Following a crazy flight over the Atlantic, Eddie lands in New York and opens a free ice cream factory for boys and girls. The finale, showing the ice cream being frozen and served, is the loveliest and most effective. Technicolour sequence the screen has offered to date.

"Kid Millions" is a million dollars worth of entertainment. See it and treat yourself to the greatest film fun fest in years.

"KID MILLIONS" (CAPITOL)—"GOIN' TO TOWN" (PATHE)—"ROMANCE IN MANHATTAN" (WELLINGTON)—"ONE NEW YORK NIGHT" (REGAL)—"BLACK EYES"—FIRST PERSIAN TALKIE?

"GOIN' TO TOWN"

At The Pathe

As a girl who knows what she wants and thrives an opposition, the new and modern Mae West returns to the screen in Paramount's "Goin' to Town" now at the Pathe. The blonde star's New vehicle tops all her previous efforts for comedy, romance, intrigue and vocal efforts.

Glittering arrayed in the styles of 1935, Mae West plays a cattle baron's widow with money to burn and warm affections. And to get her man she transports herself from a small mid-western mining town to Buenos Aires and Southampton, and through a series of gay and hectic adventures.

Paul Cavanagh, playing a handsome Englishman, is the man. When Mae West discovers that beauty, wealth and racing stables can't get him, she decides to become a lady, in the society manner.

With her characteristic directness and beauty sets about acquiring manners and background. But there is a rival, Marjorie Gatenon, and a number of fortune hunters, including Ivan Lebedeff, and between them they make a lot of trouble for the blonde charmer.

Mae West beats them in the end, however, and when she does Cavanagh returns to tell her that he has loved her all the time.

Sam Fain and Irving Kahal composed the popular tunes for "Goin' to Town", two of which you will find hard to forget; they are "Love Is Love" and "He's a Bad Man". And Mae West extends her repertoire with an operatic selection from "Samson Delilah", which astounded society and delighted the audience.

Cavanagh, who has been seen on the screen before, turns in a faultless performance opposite Miss West. Others of the cast include Monroe Owsley, Fred Kohler, Sr., Marjorie Gatenon, Gilbert Emery and Grant Withers.

The dialogue of "Goin' to Town", written by Miss West, fairly bristles with the brilliant Westisms that made her first picture so delightful. You'll enjoy the picture, so waste no time in going to see it.

"BABES IN TOYLAND"

Laurel And Hardy At The Palace

Beautiful voices, stirring music and Laurel and Hardy's hilarious comedy make "Babes in Toyland", the Hal Roach M.G.M. production of Victor Herbert's delightful operetta, a film nobody would like to miss. It is now playing at the Palace. Moving through fantastically gorgeous sets, the colourful characters of Toyland present a story that is interesting to both grown-ups and youngsters.

In this feature Laurel and Hardy are seen as two apprentice toy makers, who in their sincere but wild attempts to get Widow Peep, who lived in "The Shoe" and her daughter, Bo-Peep, out of the clutches of Toyland's villain, Barnaby, involve themselves in a series of hilarious events that at times turns the operetta into a screamingly funny comedy.

Adroit director, beautiful singing, clever acting and stirring music, in addition to the comedy, make this one of the out-standing productions of the year.

"Kid Millions" with Edie Cantor at the Capitol.

"Goin' To Town" with Paul Cavanagh at the Pathe this week.

"NOOR-E-YAMAN"

At The Swastik

Wadia Bros' sequel to their most successful production "Lal-e-Yaman" entitled "Noor-e-Yaman" has proved even more popular than the former production and complying with the request of their numerous patrons the management of the Swastik Talkies (late Carlton Talkies, Lamington Road) have booked this stupendous, spectacular epic production for their theatre from to-day.

The picture is brimful of action, thrills and suspense and the story is so absorbing that it holds one spellbound till the end, many of the songs-hits have proved so popular that they are being sung by thousands of peoples who have seen this unforgettable picture during its first run.

The picture is released for the last time in Bombay and therefore those who have not yet seen it as well as those who want to see it again and again should not miss this golden opportunity.

LAST WEEK OF "COLLEGE GIRL"

At The West End

The sentiment of national service runs through the new picture "Dev Dasi" a Ranjit Production, starring Gohar in an entirely new role. It will be released shortly at West End.

This week is the last chance for those who want to see a "College Girl" as it is running for the last eighth week at West End Talkies.

"JUST IMAGINE"

At The Edward

Hailed as the greatest musical comedy romance of the year, the new De Sylvia, Brown and Anderson Fox Movietone picture, "Just Imagine", has returned to the Edward for the current week. It is novel in theme and treatment, has a brilliant cast headed by the inimitable El Brandel and has a number of songs of the calibre which has made De Sylvia Brown and Henderson the greatest song writing team in the world.

The authors of the tuneful "Sunny Side Up" have taken a long step forward with their second talking screen production, and have provided a sensational picture that is certain to rank as high or higher than their first movietone effort.

El Brandel has his biggest role since entering talking pictures and does admirably. He is assisted by an able cast that includes Maureen O'Sullivan, Marjorie White, Frank Albertson and John Garlick.

"BLOOD FEUD"

Second Week At The Minerva

"Blood Feud" or Josh-e-Intiqam, a new theatre's New India Picture, which was released at the Minerva Talkies on last Saturday was splendidly received by the classes as well as the masses. It is a sure hit both from the box-office and quality point of view. The frontier tribal life has been beautifully depicted, with Prithvi Raj, Hiralal, Jagadish, Master Labbu, Yakub, Miss Kamala, Miss Molina and other selected artistes. The picture abounds in fine dances and songs. The picture is continued for the second week from to-day.

"ROMANCE IN MANHATTAN"

Ginger Rogers At Wellington

A thrilling love story that throbs in unison with the pulsating tempo of New York, drama that is rich in human interest and emotional appeal, and characterizations that become living realities under the magic touch of genius these are the ingredients that have been combined to make the RKO-Radio's "Romance of Manhattan" one of the most promising films of the current season. It is being screened this week at the Wellington.

Francis Lederer, international stage and screen favourite, is co-starred with Ginger Rogers in this poignant story of a friendless, penniless immigrant boy who as toward America as the Promised Land, and whose gallant fight for romance and happiness brings him into a series of gripping episodes in the sub-stratum of the metropolis.

Cast as the heroine is sparkling Ginger Rogers, "Queen of Caricature" and exponent of the famous "Continental" who plays the light-hearted chorus girl whose generosity far exceeds the scope of her meagre earnings. Others in the cast include such outstanding performers as J. Farrell, MacDonald, Lillian Harmer and Jimmie Butler, popular boy actor.

Adapted from an original story by Norman Krasna and Don Hartman, the screen play was written by Edward Kaufman and Jane Murn. Because of his special skill Stephen Roberts was assigned to the task of directing the picture.

In this production, Francis Lederer brings to the screen the dash and heart gripping appeal that has made him the idol of the American and European stage, and in the character of the immigrant boy he has his greatest opportunity to sway audiences to laughter or tears.

The story deals with the exciting experiences of an immigrant youth who jumps overboard from a ship and enters the country illegally. His fight for existence, his sunny optimism and his idealistic courage in the face of terrific odds furnish a highly emotional background for the fast-moving plot, with romance highlights provided by Miss Rogers as a sympathetic chorus girl.

The film is said to reach a startling dramatic pitch when the youth is threatened with deportation but is saved through a series of unexpected developments.

Miss Rogers' "Romance in Manhattan" role is more dramatic than her role in "The Gay Divorcee."

NARIMAN'S CALL TO MUSLIM YOUTH

Set Aside Inferiority Complex And Develop Sense Of Self-Respect

IN UNITY LIES PATH OF PROGRESS

A stirring appeal to the Muslim youth to cast off inferiority complex, and to cultivate the spirit of independence which was the greatest tenet of Islam, was made by Mr. K. F. Nariman, at the Third Anniversary Celebration of the Jamiat Shubban Al-Muslimeen, held at the Anjuman-e-Islam Hall, Bombay, on Friday.

Sir Currimbhoy Ebrahim Baronet, a patron of the Jamiat al-Shabban-e-Muslimeen, who presided over the third annual social gathering of the Jamiat on Friday.

healthy spirit of co-operation which prevailed in the Jamiat Shubban Al-Muslimeen was in fact a living lesson for the great Muslim leaders, who created splits and factions in their own community.

UNITY AS WATCHWORD.
Sir Currimbhoy Ebrahim, President of the evening, said that the achievement of Muslim progress was possible only on the basis of unification of Muslims and the introduction of goodwill in the community.

"Our very motto must be unity," he observed, "as it is the motto of our religion, and when we have learnt to act in the spirit of that brotherhood, we will achieve that degree of strength and initiative which will carry us forward to that state of advancement which will make Islam proud of its followers and enable us to stand in a position of equality with our brethren of the sister communities."

NARIMAN'S EXHORTATION.
Mr. K. F. Nariman in an impressive speech asked the Muslim youth to realise the spirit of unity among the youths in various parts of the world, irrespective of caste or community. They should study the life of all great prophets, especially of their Prophet, and live up to his teachings and his principles. If the modern youth could realise the glorious lives of great personalities in the past, their courage and determination, their self-sacrifice and suffering for noble causes, the youth would be in a position to build up their own character. Modern schools and colleges did not prove, in the opinion of the speaker, to be the places where character-building took place. The character of the rising generation was to be built in organisations like the present Jamiat and through the inculcation of worthy principles taught and adopted by the great prophets of the past.

DEVELOP SELF-RESPECT.
Mr. Nariman asked the youth to set aside the inferiority complex and develop the sense of self-respect and the feeling of national pride. If only the youth could recall the great past, and have the courage to build up to the glorious traditions once again, Mr. Nariman felt, that once again, the ideals of democracy and independence would be attained by youth.

Mr. Nariman referred to the appalling illiteracy all over the land and urged the youth to take up the work of effectively liquidating mass illiteracy. He urged every one to make it a sacred self-imposed duty to participate in a drive against illiteracy. Every youth should take a vow to eradicate illiteracy as far as his means permitted.

PROPER CARE OF CHILDREN

Mr. Talpade's Statement At Schools Committee

At the Schools Committee Meeting on Friday evening Mr. Talpade made a statement regarding the proper care of children who attend Municipal Schools. It was a sequel to the recent kidnapping of three children aged 6, 7, and 9 two boys and one girl from a school in Sandhurst Road who were spirited away with the temptation of receiving sweets by a man and were found somewhere near Kamatipura. Mr. Talpade said the man was convicted.

He suggested, the trouble arose since some schools had no compounds where children could stay before the school was opened for the day.

The Secretary of the Municipal Committee explained, in this particular case the children came half an hour before time from their home and the parents should take proper care in such matters. He submitted that he would report to the committee the results of a further and thorough enquiry in the matter in the next meeting of the Committee.

Mr. Ishwarbhai Patel made a suggestion that the teachers and Head-masters of Schools should be asked to warn the boys and girls not to trust strangers.

Art Exhibition

The art exhibition organised by the Universal Arts League in aid of the Quetta Relief Fund is of manifold interest. The water colours are, of course, dominant. But there are also attractive oils. The exhibition is noteworthy for some of the pictures recently arrived, which won great appreciation in London at the India Society's exhibition of Modern Indian Art. Another feature is the section assigned to sculpture—in relief and in the round. And, the camera section of the Universal Arts League, responsible for this exhibition, is also of interest. The exhibition will continue till the 23rd instant every evening between 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. A detailed review of the exhibition will appear in our Sunday issue.

Bombay's Water-Supply

The monsoon so far has dispelled the fears and anxiety of the pessimists and given the city plentiful rain. The gutters and bye-lanes, which required a flush out very badly, have been cleansed by drenching rain. The dampness caused by rain has made a number of people down with fever and cold and the doctors have a busy time. The Tulsi and Pawal lakes, which are subsidiary lakes to supply water, are already overflowing. The Tansa lake had eight and a half inches of rain last week and the volume of water has increased to 20,782 million gallons. The total capacity of Tansa lake is 35,604 million gallons and it is hoped by the end of August this lake will also be overflowing. Strange to say that the Vihar lake, whose total capacity is 9,120 million gallons, is not overflowing in spite of the fact that it received 40 inches of rain against 32 inches of Tansa lake. Its volume last week was 5,278 million gallons while before the monsoon set in it had 5,290 million gallons of water. This shows that, in spite of 40 inches of rain, it has received very little water.

Man Found Unconscious On Public Thoroughfare

Thursday, and was sent to the Hospital for the necessary Medical treatment.
Janu Rama and Sudkya Ramji were arrested and were remanded to custody at Dandar Police Court on Friday pending the arrests of three more people, who, the Police allege, are absconding.

DISCOVERED SCANDALS

The following extract from the judgment recently delivered by two Justices of the Lahore High Court—Justices Monroe and Rangilal—in the appeal of Inderpal, who was approver in the second Lahore conspiracy case and who subsequently retracted, deserves the prominent attention not only of the public but also of the Administration in India:

"We desire to emphasize that the original trial and this trial have become so complicated and have been prolonged so inordinately merely because the police did not wish to place a true picture of the investigation as it proceeded before the court. It has been most painful for us to record that responsible officers have committed perjury in court in order to maintain the untenable positions they had taken up."

But the conduct which rightly pained their Lordships was not exclusively the monopoly of the Police alone. The Magistrate, who recorded the original statement, has been suspected of being guilty of objectionable practices and the judges have had to pass very severe strictures on him too. We must quote the relevant passage from the judgment:

"It is alleged that the Magistrate re-wrote a whole sheet and substituted it for the original in order to correct the mistakes by Inderpal as to the date and the proceedings of a political meeting. All the facts taken together raise a very strong suspicion in our mind that the sheet in question was re-written by the Magistrate. We are prepared to believe that this substitution was made with Inderpal's consent, but the emphatic denial of the Magistrate on this point throws a great doubt in our minds on his fairness as a Magistrate and his veracity as a witness."

Need For Action

One of the many facts which emerge conspicuously from their Lordships' findings in this case is

The Better Way

In response to the vigorous agitation carried on by certain Muslim leaders against Section 304 of the India Bill with regard to its possible effect on the Communal Award, the British Government have proposed two slight amendments to the Section. One of these provides that the Governor-General and the Governor in forwarding the resolution of the Legislature recommending any alteration in the Award, shall, in addition to forwarding their own opinion, report also the views of any minority likely to be affected. The other amendment is a similar one and provides that the Secretary of State should ascertain the views of any minority likely to be affected. These amendments, though they seem to be the final and considered opinions of the Government in response to the many representations on the subject, do not make any material difference in the Section as it is at present. Nor do we feel sure that they will satisfy the extreme communalist leaders of Muslims.

What the Muslim leaders insisted upon was that the assurance given by Government that the Communal Award would not be altered except with the approval of the communities concerned must be embodied in the Statute itself—it is significant that even these trusted friends of Government are not prepared to rely merely on promises not given in a legal form. Now, if the assurance were to be embodied in the Act in the form in which it was given, it would have been necessary to specify clearly the methods of ascertaining the views of the communities concerned. And that is not quite so easy a thing as it appears at first sight. The Muslim leaders added to the difficulty by also insisting that the assent of three-fourths of the representatives of the communities that it is dangerous to depend entirely on the evidence of the police—in deciding criminal cases of a serious nature. In this particular instance responsible officers have been found to have committed perjury, and a Magistrate is suspected by High Court Judges to have altered the statements of the accused—whether with or without his consent is immaterial. The scandalous procedure adopted by the Police officers must serve as a warning and an eye-opener to Courts of Justice all over India who are more often than not only too prone to regard statements by the Police as gospel truth. But it is, indeed, a tragedy when guardians of law and order to whom Government entrust the safety of lives and property turn out to be perjurers. We do not know what action—if any—will be taken against these officers. The words of the judgment—inspite of what their Lordships say in mitigation of the offence—are, however, quite clear. These officers are guilty of perjury. And perjury must be severely punished not only because it is an offence already committed but also because it should teach other officers not to misuse their already too wide powers.

Obvious Lessons

In this connection, we cannot help observing that hundreds of young men in Bengal are under detention without any trial and merely on adverse reports by the police—reports untested by cross-examination in open court. They are under detention even without being told the details of their alleged crime. And that detention is covered with a thin veneer of judicial justification by the executive placing whatever information it alone chooses to place before two sessions judges without affording any opportunity to the "accused" even to be present, much less to participate in the proceedings. We wonder what Sir John Anderson and Sir Henry Craik will say about the obvious lessons that are to be derived from the judgment of Justices Monroe and Rangilal.

concerned is necessary before the Award is altered. The British Government has rightly refused to accept this demand. It was indeed bound to be guided by the views of the communities concerned, and it followed that the communities' views were to be ascertained from those of their representatives in the legislature. But Government was under no obligation to reject the view of any smaller majority than three-fourths. In the circumstances, Parliament is made the sole judge of the views of the communities concerned in the light of reports made by the Governor or Governor-General and the Secretary of State on the lines suggested by the Section 304, including its latest official amendments. We expect that these amendments will be accepted by the Lords and that otherwise the Section will not undergo any serious alteration.

If Muslim leaders are not satisfied with the amendments, they should now at least learn that a far better way to safeguard the interests of their community is to attempt immediately a settlement with other communities and thus compel Government to accept that settlement in any way it finds feasible. The communal question is a purely domestic one and at no stage should it be referred to the arbitration of a full alien body. However hard a full communal settlement may be, we do not see any reason why negotiations for it should not be started at once. It is unwise to wait upon events in the hope that something will turn up and make a settlement easy. Delay will only make things difficult, as it has made in the past. It is the duty of the Congress Working Committee to take the initiative in this matter without any further procrastination.

DEATH OF AN IRISH POET

A. E. An Immortal Figure Of Irish Renaissance

(By "CASIMIR")

All lovers of English or preferably, Anglo-Irish literature would learn of the death of 'A.E.' (George Russell) with something like personal sorrow: the voice that they have always heard with a strange and peculiar delight, early and late (a poet's voice is ageless), the voice that created beauty with its nobility, calmness, wisdom, with its vision and imagery that mysticism merely heightened that marred, the voice that was lifted above the din of conflict and chaos and struck myriad cadences of pure music will no longer be heard.

Saints And Sinners

A. E. was more than a personality: he constituted himself into a historic land-mark with which is associated the epoch of Irish renaissance in its every important aspect. He was unique because he remained above all political parties although his nationalism was as ardent as any other Irish nationalist's and he was regarded by every party with a feeling that verged on reverence. Everyone found him lovable. One might even wonder if the man was human: but the fact that the worst passions—and one could well imagine their intensity in the days of Irish unrest—could yield to the magic personality of this man merely proves not only his own but even the humanity of those who burnt in hate—the terrible hatred of the revolutionaries both of the British and the traitors of the motherland—and everybody was a traitor who did not stand up for Irish patriotism and strike a blow for Irish freedom.

A Blasphemer's Praise

The explanation of this unusual phenomenon is furnished in the memories recorded in the politico-literary history of the early nineties. W. B. Yeats has left an interesting description of the fellow-poet in his "Autobiographies".

A. E. was something of a mystery even in those days when he lived in a students' hostel in Dublin and he was always voted arbitrator when any quarrel had to be settled. He went for days without uttering a single word and disappeared it was believed into the blue mountains of Dublin in search of visions, those unearthly visions which he actually painted.

But the complete portrait of A. E. is to be found in the pages of the three volumes of George Moore's "Hall and Farewell" and the way Moore describes the man is both exceptional and eloquent. To have drawn praise from a man of Moore's half malicious, extraordinarily brilliant wit and analysis was nothing short of a miracle: and one could say, without being guilty of exaggeration, that A. E. was the one god, who was spared by that prince amongst blasphemers.

Poet In Pigsty

A. E. was symbolically enough

the beginning of the acute trouble with Italy, Abyssinia has been consistently acting with studied regard for international obligations. She has stuck to the League of Nations unto the very last while Italy has been dealing it one moral blow after another. She has ever been asking for the liquidation of the conflict through the recognised channels of international arbitration while Italy has been insisting on reducing her to a state of vassalage first and treating with her afterwards. Abyssinia offered concessions, Italy would have none of them unless they meant her overlordship over the only free country in Africa. Abyssinia went further in the pursuit of honourable peace. She appealed to the conscience of the world including America. The response has been little worse than an ignoble betrayal of all allegiance to right and to solemn undertakings along with a sneaking respect for might. In these circumstances there is little wonder that Abyssinia should have virtually abandoned hope of intervention by the Great Powers which was the only means of averting war. And who is the man with any true sense of right and wrong who will not feel the deepest sympathy with and appreciation for the Abyssinian nation and its Emperor who says in his appeal to his people: "It is better to die free than to live as slaves. Should a peaceful solution not be found at the last moment, then Ethiopia stretching out her hands to God, will struggle to the last man?"

OUR EDUCATIONAL POLICY

Urgent Need For A Thorough Re-Orientation

By

A. RASHID.

Education in India, instead of solving the problem of unemployment, has been largely responsible for it. The craze for entering the portals of a University has been gaining ground for years. The modern civilization is not complete without college education; and it is this incentive that has been working in the minds of the parents. The fervour for acquiring these degrees is great among students, though they may not possess the qualities essential for the acquirement. The spiritual India of the eighties has lost its glare and is on the verge of extinction. The ancient heritage of learning of which our forefathers rightly felt proud, is disappearing before the onslaught of Western culture, which is being initiated in its most distorted shape. The presence of the Anglo-Saxon race amongst us, the changing fashion emanating from the brilliant court of London and Paris, the strange mannerism imperceptibly flowing from the great centres of learning in the West, and the morbid atmosphere of the so-called advancing civilization are steadily introducing in our strangely conservative society changes of far reaching importance. Since the Great War there has been enormous increase in the number of students desiring admission in foreign universities; and these Europe-returned intelligentsia of to-day indirectly exert a great influence on our society.

Disillusionment

In every phase of the contemporary intellectual life of India there seems to be an organized effort to pay homage to the false idols of the market-place of Paris, Vienna, Berlin and Moscow. Why such a subversive change in our outlook is being brought about is not difficult to understand. The superiority of the English language and its importance in the field of employment seem to have impressed upon the dazzled Indian the necessity of acquiring it. Yet, in spite of fervid ambition in the parents to see their sons find a place in the spell-bound circle of bureaucracy and despite the growing enthusiasm for acquiring the English language, a vast majority of the university-returned youths are meagrely equipped to grapple with the problem of bread. Their hopes are high when they leave the portals of their universities; but when they fall to secure a comfortable place in life they are sadly disillusioned. But it is not the defect of the education but of the system.

Misfit Students

There are two classes of students. One has rich parents while the other poor, one can afford to remain in the college for as long time as it likes, while the other cannot. Gems are often found in the latter class, but the purse of the parents being meagre they are thrown into the back-ground. The other class regards college life as a social phenomenon, meant to make merry. The student life, for such, is something like a profession whereby they practise fraud upon their parents. This class is vast and is by imperceptible degrees getting popular. The cult of collegianism, which the well-to-do students can easily afford to parade, is almost becoming a menace to society. It consists mostly of third rate students. These have money therefore power and they come in the way of those who by sheer dint of industry and intelligence try to climb up but are made to suffer disappointment. There cannot be a greater humbug than that of an average student desiring to become a mock Englishman, and our universities offer ample field for such adventures. Thus the student-life has either become a profession or drudgery. This is responsible for the large number of misfit students in our universities. It is the task of responsible elders of Indian society to initiate a campaign against this malady. The problem is a serious one and a thorough re-orientation in the sphere of education is required.

Frankly Speaking

HOARE CONGRATULATES HIMSELF

Sir Samuel Hoare's speech at the Foreign Press Association Luncheon need not provoke uncharitable feelings. His earnestness in self-adulation ought, indeed, to be regarded with a sense of indulgent amusement. But his reference to friendship with Mahatma Gandhi requires a minor correction. Sir Samuel betrays ignorance of the man and the philosophy of his life when he suggests, as he seems to do, that it was an achievement on his, Sir Samuel's, part to have made a "personal friend" of the Mahatma. Gandhi's quarrel has always been with systems, never with individuals towards whom he invariably reacts with feelings of cordial friendship, however unjust and bitterly these individuals may be opposed to him. His "personal friendship" with Gandhi is, however, certainly an achievement in the sense that Sir Samuel controlled his own prejudices to that extent. As regards Sir Samuel's first and second objectives, he has definitely failed. Instead of facing the real "stubborn facts," he edged past them and the result is not going to be what he fondly hopes for.

FRUSTRATE THE ATTEMPT

After pointing out many instances in which several provincial Governments have abused the Emergency Press Act, the Punjab Journalists' Association urges the members of the Central Legislature to unite and frustrate Government's attempt to place the Act permanently on the Statute Book. The use of the Act to deal with the communal trouble in Lahore and Amritsar is ominous. It may provide a fresh pretext for perpetuating the measure for communal tension is, in the present circumstances of the country, a common occurrence in certain provinces. Communal tension is certainly an evil, but the abuse of the Press Act is an additional evil. We trust the Legislative Assembly will uncompromisingly oppose Government's attempt to perpetuate the Emergency Press Act in any form.

THE YACHT CLUB'S LEASE

The attempt of the Bombay Yacht Club to renew its lease for the ground it occupies at Apollo Bunder on unduly favourable terms long before the expiry of the present lease calls for much vigilance on the part of the public. The Club took the lease of nearly 13,000 square yards of land belonging to the Port Trust, just on the sea-shore at Apollo Bunder, in 1897 for a period of fifty years at the nominal rate of one rupee and three annas per square yard. But the present market value of the plot is estimated at about Rs. 200 and is sure to rise much higher by 1947, when the lease expires. And it is certain that the Trustees, then in charge of the Port Trust, will demand the full market value of the plot for a fresh lease. Consequently the Club is trying to negotiate a fresh lease now on favourable terms while the Port Trust is not fully Indianised. It is said that the Club offers to pay Rs. 32 per square yard for a fresh lease for thirty years. But this is a ridiculously low figure, and there is no reason whatsoever why at least something approaching the full market value should not be charged to the Club.

Mr. Fazlul Haq and we have no doubt that Congressmen will do heartily co-operate with him in the common service to the cause of the Motherland.

— PRESS VIEWS —

Perpetuating Repression.

"It looks almost certain," says our Simla Correspondent, "that the Government of India will bring the Criminal Law Amendment Bill and the Indian Press Act Amendment Bill practically at the commencement of the Simla session of the Assembly, as the chief Opposition in the House is likely to adopt dilatory or other obstructive tactics in case of their inability to carry the Independents into their lobbies for the total rejection of the measures." If after the use which the Government have made of their powers under the two Acts ever since they were placed on the statute book and more particularly during the last few weeks, the Independents will still refuse to go into the Opposition lobby with the two Congress parties, we have not the smallest hesitation in saying that not only will they prove false to the name they have assumed, but they will betray the confidence reposed in them by their constituents. We need hardly say that so far as these two Acts are concerned, Muslim opinion is as much and as decidedly against their perpetuation as general nationalist opinion for the simple reason that the powers under these obnoxious measures have been as freely used against Muslims as against members of other communities.—"Tribune."

An Unwise Ban

What was so long a suspicion has ultimately been proved true. Interpreting the recent quit order on Mr. Mohanlal Saxena, the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal has said in effect that not only are the Government not prepared to co-operate with the Assembly Committee of enquiry but that their intention is not to allow the enquiry to be made. For ourselves, we did not see the wisdom of the earlier refusal of the Government to extend their co-operation to the Committee; still less do we see now the wisdom of the total banning of the enquiry. If the former action was calculated to make the report of the Committee one-sided, their later action will now produce a still worse effect, namely, that all sorts of rumours will now be floating along the country as merrily as before. It is, however, a matter for some satisfaction to learn that the Bengal Government have asked Mr. Saxena to forward the cases of those detained to the Government which, in the opinion of Mr. Saxena, require the immediate consideration of the Government. We hope these cases will be considered carefully and sympathetically and early steps will be taken to afford relief where necessary.—"Forward."

DEMOCRACY IN CRISIS

What It Has To Learn From Dictatorship
—Anglo-India,
The lesson of failure?

Under the ominous title "The Shadow", our Anglo-Indian contemporary sagely remarks "India's parliamentary problems are much more complicated than those of the United Kingdom." And this leads us to wonder who complicated them.

Continuing it says, "Some time will have to be given to the members of the new legislatures to settle down to work together, Communal and sharp edges have to be rubbed off..."

And the friction that the process will involve will, of course, be quite welcome to our conferees. And by the way, who sharpened the edges that have now to be rubbed off?

"As the Parliamentary Joint Select Committee pointed out," it says further, "it is only from experience that there can grow up a system of collective responsibility." Experience of responsibility denied, isn't it?

Under the 1936 programme 500,000 more Italian youths would receive instruction from 40,000 more instructors.

That would immediately relieve the unemployment pressure by 40,000 units. And more later on when the 500,000 are sufficiently trained to go to war and—?

Punjab journalists have condemned, in a meeting, the indiscriminate use of the Press Act by Government.

But what is the Press Act meant for then?

At the Foreign Press Association Luncheon in London, Sir Samuel Hoare made a strong plea to his hearers to, (1) face facts, (2) act where possible as peace-makers and (3) not to allow political differences to destroy friendships. At the India Office, he said, he had this triple objective constantly in mind.

Illustrating each of these "attitudes" from Sir Samuel Hoare's terms of office, we have, respectively,

(1) His optimism that the constitution forged by him will be worked in India.

(2) The Communal Award, and as to (3) well what he really means is that he did not allow personal friendship to affect political difference.

"The rain caused a squabble at Princess Street, Bombay, last night." —B. B. Minor.

What we want to know is why Section 144 Cr. P. Code was not promulgated against the rain?

Defending Government's action in banning Mr. Saxena's entry into certain areas in Bengal, the "Pioneer" says—

"In short, Mr. Saxena went to Bengal in the same spirit as Miss Mayo came to India, to peer into the dark places..."

Granted. There was a slight difference, however, in the reception that they received. Miss Mayo stayed at Government Houses and Mr. Saxena's entry was banned.

And thereby, brother, hangs a tale.

"Million Men Ready To Die And Sell Their Life Dearly"

LONDON, July 18. Abyssinia has virtually abandoned hope of intervention by the Great Powers, which was the only means of averting war, according to a high Abyssinian official in London. Women will help their menfolk on the battlefield and the priests will spur on the army which have a natural ally in their accustomed mountainous and arid terrain.

Economy Decrees Provoke French Civil Servants

PARIS, July 18. M. Laval's economy decrees have led to opposition from ex-servicemen and civil servants. The latter have announced a mass meeting in Place de l'Opera at 6 to-morrow evening, despite the government order forbidding all street demonstrations, while ex-servicemen are meeting in a hall in the Latin Quarter to-morrow evening.

It is thought probable that the ex-servicemen will ultimately resign themselves to the inevitable, while even if the postal workers, railwaymen and others strike against the cuts, they will be immediately replaced by the unemployed, and if necessary by the military, therefore no action on their part is considered likely.

Meanwhile the doctors in Paris have set an example by voluntarily deciding to cut their minimum fees by 10 per cent. The Bourse again reacted favourably to the decrees which were considered finally to solve the franc problem.—Reuter.

SEATS BATTLE

Rages Thick In C. P. Delimitation Committee

(From Our Correspondent) NAGPUR, July 19. The first meeting of the C. P. Delimitation Committee was held at the Secretariat Building to-day the Hon. Mr. E. Gordon, the Finance Member, presiding. The meeting was not open to the press but it is understood that there was a prolonged debate over the question of distribution of the 112 seats proposed for the next council between C. P. and Berar.

BONE OF CONTENTION. The bone of contention between the two provinces was the basis for the allocation. The Berar members contended, it is learnt, that in view of the fact that at present they are allotted 17 out of a total of 55 elected seats, they should be allotted 34 under the new Constitution.

The C. P. members were not prepared to concede more than 31 seats. Some even went further and advocated the allotment of only 22 seats on the population basis.

No agreement could hence be reached on the point and the Committee was adjourned till to-morrow. THREAT OF RESIGNATION. It is further understood on good authority that the Committee was sharply divided on the question of representation of Labour and the "Depressed Classes" an provincial and linguistic bias as these usually played a prominent part and the members were evenly divided. The Berarists being pitted against the Hindusthanis (C. P. Members). One member even threatened to resign as he felt that the committee was not doing justice to the masses. Ultimately it was decided by a majority that Labour should be given representation through open constituencies and not through Trade Unions.

HARLIAN QUOTAS. The Poona Pact also figured in the discussions and it was decided, it is learnt, that four should be the maximum number of Harlian candidates offering for primary election but that once the option of withdrawing from the general election as it would deprive the Caste Hindus of their opportunity of choosing a Harlian candidate and thus defeat the object of the Poona Pact.

The Committee further agreed that two seats should be allotted to C. P. Landholders and one to Berar. Further, it is understood, that the decisions of the committee which are provisional will be published for eliciting public opinion and the Committee will meet again to reconsider the same after the views of the public have been ascertained.

Popular Battle Over Motor Levy Lost

Bombay Council Gives 'Carte Blanche' To Govt.

The Local Government which beat a retreat from the Law Court, sequel to Mr. Nariman's case, emerged triumphant from the Bombay Legislative Council when the House passed on Friday the Motor Vehicles Act Amending Bill. Thus after a stormy debate lasting for three days, the Bill has been passed in the form in which the Government wanted it, despite popular protest and a sheaf of amendments moved by the Opposition.

(From Our Correspondent.) POONA, July 19. In the Bombay Legislative Council to-day, to a query from Mr. Gokhale, Sir Shah Nawaz Bhutto answered that money had been sanctioned for the repair of Poona-Sholapur Road between Hadapsar and Uruli.

To-day again, Mr. B. S. Kamat criticised the Finance Member over the question of relief to distressed agriculturists.

Mr. Bhallal Patel inquired if the Government were aware that coercive measures were used at Tagdi village (Dhanda Taluqa, Ahmedabad district) to recover "Jama" and the Government spokesman denied the use of coercive measures.

Khan Bahadur Vaibux Patel asked questions about the conduct of the conduct in connection with the ed about the conduct of sub-inspector Fatesingh in connection Tazia of Shakarkul Moholla (Nadiad) and the consequent Muslim unrest over it.

The Home Member Mr. Turner, replied that the complaint lodged against Mr. Fatesingh was dismissed.

NO REDUCTION IN TAXI FARE. Syed Munawar asked about the question of reducing Bombay taxi fare from eight annas a mile to six and four annas, to which answer was given in the negative.

To another query the Home Member answered the same member that the proposal for the establishment of a civil court for the Bombay city was under the consideration of Government.

MOTOR LEVY BILL. When the House resumed discussion of the Motor Vehicles Act amending bill, Rao Bahadur Kale, leader of the Opposition supported Mr. Gazdar's amendment proposing wholesale deletion of the renewal of registration fees clause from the sixth clause of the Bill. He maintained that he supported the amendment for the simple reason, that the renewal of fees deviated from the very principle underlying registration.

Mr. Gangoli thought that the amendment was out of order, as it went behind the accepted principle of the bill at its first reading, and asked if the amendment would require the Governor's previous sanction.

GOVT REFUSE ASSURANCE. Mr. Humphrey wanted an assurance from the Government that the House would be given an opportunity to revise the present schedule. If the October session threw out the new motor taxation Bill. Government were not prepared to give an undertaking. The amendment was eventually lost.

Rao Saheb Pandurang Pant Kulkarni of Alandi next moved his amendment without giving any reasons for, as he put it, "Government have a majority and they are not listening to us. Why argue with the deaf."

The Home Member too opposed the motion without giving reasons. The amendment failed.

Dr. Dixit and Mr. Achrekar refused to move amendments standing against their names.

POPULAR AMENDMENTS LOST. The Rao Saheb of Alandi however moved every one of his amendments, sometimes with reasons and sometimes without them. But Government kept a stubborn attitude, and all popular amendments were unceremoniously dismissed.

Moving an amendment to the amendment of Rao Saheb Kulkarni proposing reduction in the fee for the renewal of registration for other motor vehicles, Mr. Gangoli expressed surprise that with three Indian members in the Council, Government should not show the least consideration for the other side of the House. The Speaker recalled an occasion when Sir Frank Hudson ex-Hon. Member had, after carrying his point on the strength of the majority found his way the next day to trace his steps and accept the minority amendment defeated the previous day.

The speaker appealed to the Government for such a gesture. He stated that it was a man formerly in this Council who had later boycotted it that had brought the Government to this house. Mr. Gangoli's appeal proved futile, the amendment being lost.

Clause six was eventually passed and so the second reading of the bill was gone through.

PASSES THIRD READING. The Home Member next moved that the bill be read for the third time and passed.

Mr. Gazdar opposing asked every member to remember his constituency.

Mr. Soman also opposed it.

The Home Member replied and the third reading of the bill was passed.

Mr. Gazdar wanted a division, but he did not press for it.

The President declared the bill read for the third time and passed.

So after a heated debate lasting for eleven hours during the three days, the bill emerged triumphant in its very original form, having bluntly defied all popular attempts to modify it.

WAKFS BILL. The second reading (clause by clause) of the Musselman Wakfs Bill was next resumed.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR MURDER. Mr. Justice Davar at the High Court Sessions sentenced Mahmad Ayubkhan Nawabkhan, a Patna aged 30 years, and his brother Sardarkhan, a lad of 18, to transportation for life on the jury finding them guilty of murder by a majority of 7 to 2.

The advocate-General with Mr. J. N. Varma appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. J. G. Bhagat for the accused.

It appeared that the first accused suspected his wife to be on terms of criminal intimacy with one Abdul Rasul and therefore, there was enmity between the two. On February 7 last, the first accused accompanied by his brother, the second accused, went to the residence of Abdul Rasul opposite Northbrook Gardens, and after taking tea with the latter, stabbed him with a knife, inflicting fatal wounds.

Have You Realised The Need Of Quetta Sufferers?

Then Help Us To Send Another Rs. 10,000

The Central Relief Committee organized by the Congress President, has already begun the work of shooting funds to various items of relief to the survivors of Quetta earthquake disaster and Babu Rajendra Prasad has appealed to the readers of the "Bombay Chronicle," the "Bombay Sentinel" and the "Bombay Samachar" to help the Committee by providing funds. Mr. Jairamdas Daulatram one of the Secretaries of the Quetta Central Relief Committee says that the public outside Sind and Punjab have not yet a clear idea as to the purpose for which still more funds are required. The second instalment of Rs. 10,000 from the Three Paper Fund was sent to the Quetta Central Relief Committee on Wednesday. We hope our readers, by their prompt and generous contribution, will enable us to send another instalment of Rs. 10,000 to the Committee by the end of this week.

In order to enable all classes of people easily to contribute their bit to the work of relief, for the sufferers from the Quetta Earthquake, the "Bombay Chronicle," the "Bombay Samachar" and the "Bombay Sentinel" have in association, opened a fund called "The Three Paper Quetta Relief Fund" in their columns. All sums not below Re. 1 will be accepted and acknowledged in the columns of all the three papers.

The readers of the three papers responded, beyond our hopes, to our call for help to swell the Bihar Earthquake Relief Fund. The Quetta calamity is vastly greater than that which had overtaken Bihar. The need for relief and consequently for money to provide that relief is much greater. We have no doubt our appeal to the readers of the "Chronicle," the "Samachar" and the "Sentinel" to contribute at least 10 per cent. of their monthly income will evoke a generous and immediate response. We need hardly add that relief delayed is relief denied.

All cheques should be drawn in the name of "The Three Paper Quetta Relief Fund."

Contributors are requested to see that they get receipts from this office for the amounts contributed by them.

Local Bodies & Their Finances

GRATUITOUS ADVICE BY GOVT. AUDIT DEPT.

Our Readers' Views

To The Editor of "The Chronicle,"
Sir.—Copious extracts from the report of the Examiner, Local Fund Accounts for the year 1933-34 while making interesting reading to all those interested in the progress of Local Self-Government cannot fail to give rise to some serious reflection.

Let me make it clear at the outset that I yield to none in my desire to see the administration of all Local Bodies, more efficient, more mindful of public well, progressive, and purged of apathy and abuses wherever they are found to exist. But it cannot at the same time be too strongly emphasized that the sacred principles of Local Self-Government should not be allowed to be violated in the name of any of these objects. The Local Bodies must be masters in their own houses. Such supervising powers as the Government possess should only be used with a view to gentle guidance where necessary, and the Local Bodies should in no way be reduced to the position of so many subordinate departments of the Government. The very genesis of the principle of Local Self-Government is to allow the Local Bodies the fullest freedom and latitude, even freedom to commit mistakes. Their growth would be impaired if they are kept in the leading strings of the Collectors and the Commissioners—not to speak of the Minister of Local Self-Government and his department.

During the last few years orders are being issued and machinery is being created which has crippled the existing powers of the Local Bodies in various directions and it is time that the Government cried a halt to this policy of "tightening the reins" when India is being put at least so the protagonists of the Government claim—on the high road to Swaraj or Dominion Self-Government. But the position would be reduced to the ludicrous if even the Audit and such other auxiliary departments of the Government as have been created to supervise the accounts of the Local Bodies, were to set themselves up as their new-found mentors. They are at liberty to make any suggestions to the Government. But it is simply preposterous for them to offer gratuitous advice to Local Bodies about such questions of policy as "improving their financial resources" and "effecting economies." No wonder the Municipalities of Surat and the District Local Board of Dharwar resented the advice as "outside the scope of Audit." Would it be too much to hope that the Government while offering advice to Local Bodies with a view to remedy their shortcomings will also instruct the Audit Department to confine its activities to auditing of the accounts only and not to offer unwanted advice on questions of policy of which the Local Bodies themselves should be deemed to be the best judges.

One is almost inclined to laugh on reading the Auditor's remarks that "Wheel and toll taxes were not earmarked for expenditure on roads." In the case against Mr. Nariman, which the Government had to withdraw, Mr. Nariman's chief ground for defence was that the Government was not utilizing the motor registration fees for the specific purpose for which they were being levied but as general revenue. Well might one say "Physician heal thyself!"

One thing more before I close this letter. The Annual Report about the working of the Local Bodies and the Government Resolutions thereon make stereotyped reading. The report is always devoted mostly to fault-finding like the proverbial mother-in-law. It has seldom a good word to say about such Local Bodies as have shown greater vigilance and commendable zeal and whose administration is free from blemishes as well as of a progressive character. I believe the Local Bodies will be more impressed by the example for good administration being held out to them as a model to be copied, than by a mere tiring recital of the sins of commission and omission on the part of the Local Bodies concerned. It will also provide a fresh impetus for greater efforts to the Local Bodies thus mentioned in appreciative terms. Yours, etc.

Diocesan Seminary

To The Editor of "The Chronicle,"
Sir.—The Congregation of the Propaganda, Rome, have sanctioned a diocesan seminary and have moreover given it a munificent donation. The reason why the project in the oldrum is, it is presumed, that, whereas the Archbishop wants to have it put up at Parel, the public opinion is against it and in favour of its being located on the Mount Mary grounds, Bandra. In these circumstances, it would be well if a Committee of independent persons were appointed to go into the question and work for the early establishment of the Seminary. Unless His Grace comes out and appeals to the Catholic public in stirring speeches and addresses, the project, it is feared, will not materialise.—Yours, etc.

Anglo Irish in extraction and in him were blended the best qualities of both the races. But to us he always remains Irish as he probably was both in feeling and in expression although he takes rank as a first-rate English writer. Retentive and ascetic by temperament, this accountant's clerk would have been buried in his ledgers if his dream of an Ireland that reinstated all the noble gods and goddesses of antiquity had not forced him to tramp the whole of the country with that old bicycle of his. He was an expression of Gaelic renaissance and he would mount a village mound and evoke the greatness of Ireland's kings and queens. He pleaded for Irish culture, Irish language, Irish greatness; and the hard-headed peasants would easily succumb to the charm of this wanderer who could transform agricultural economics in terms of breeding better pigs and making more butter in the little poverty-stricken village.

A.E. As Writer

Is it after all strange that a dreamer and poet, who could see visions in the mountain of Tara even when the sanctuary was contaminated by the presence of Anglo-Saxon tourists, should possess the acumen of a poultry-farmer and should be responsible for building up the rural industries and co-operative movement in Ireland? His book on reconstruction was written by a poet and is as remarkable for the clarity of vision as it is beautiful prose—a prose, like all his prose, as that extremely fastidious connoisseur, George Moore says, that is sheer delight to read with its fine poise and flow. A.E. had had no particular party politics, one said; but both his song and written word throbbled with the passion of the best and highest Irish patriotism. Yet he was the spirit of dispassion whom the gods (including our incomparable Yuhisthir whom he brackets with his Irish peers) had blessed with the gift for justice and he could not merely express the soul of an Irish nationalist but that of a British imperialist playing with human passions and fire-arms in the land of Farnell as well. His books contain, then, not only beautiful prose but the essence of history of those glorious and sad years of Irish conflict.

Values Of Mysticism

He was, like Yeats, a mystic poet and lest the readers of this article muddled up his (or Yeats') mysticism with the product of the anemic Bengali lyrical poetry and will-lessness that passes for mysticism (it might justifiably be described as Bengalism or non-sensism) it is necessary to point out that the element of mysticism did not prevent either of these poets from functioning not only as poets reaching a high level of artistic experience and expression but as men essentially whose work strikes one with its fire. They were men of action even when neither of them was a gun-man. A poet need not be an idiot reacting to opium or taking shelter behind the wall of cowardice and estorism: liberalism, either moral or intellectual, has nothing to do with poetry.... And so may a Yeats move on the plane of the metaphysics of Plotinus or Plato or an A.E. hear the voices of stones without slackening their firm grip on reality. Is not their work a testimony of this fact?

A Homage

So one more heroic figure of old Ireland passes away in the death of this great poet.... And it is not difficult to imagine that he must have greeted Death with a gesture of pleasure: for though his dream floated in the "urbs beata" of his poet's soul, recent events in Ireland had brought sadness to him. More than once, he had raised his voice to plead for freedom when they suppressed a book of Liam O'Flaherty and the Papal influence seemed to have gained power in the country which had tasted oppression and lived to reach deliverance. He had to close down his weekly "Irish Statesman" and even to exile himself: but one hopes his ashes are scattered over earth's winds which move in vast space in freedom and fill it with their passionate freedom. We bow mournfully and honour this great poet's memory....

FUTURE OF DEMOCRATS

Aney Recommends Co-operation, But No Merger With Congress

AKOLA TO DECIDE

BOMBAY, July 19.
The "United Press" understands that Mr. M. S. Aney who was deputed by the Informal conference of the Democratic Swaraj Party held at Poona on June 30 last to advise about the future of the party, has submitted his draft manifesto to Mr. N. C. Kelkar, President of the Party.

The manifesto will be considered in detail at the meeting of leaders to be convened on August 1 at Akola, when Mr. Aney, Mr. N. C. Kelkar, Mr. Jannadas Mehta, Mr. M. R. Jayakar and Dr. Moonje are likely to participate.

It is understood that Mr. Aney in his manifesto has recommended the continuance of the party as an All-India party with the Congress Nationalist Party of Pt. Malaviya as the nucleus. Though the party will have the same ideal and objective as the Congress, namely, the attainment of complete independence, Mr. Aney feels that there is real need for another well-defined party to concentrate its activities on those points on which it is opposed, like the Communal Award, fundamental rights to the States subjects, etc.

Mr. Aney is stated to have recommended that this party should co-operate in all respects with the Congress, except on matters on which it differs.—United Press.

CHEAPER TAXIS FOR BOMBAY

Why Police Chief Did Not Recommend Two-Seaters

The decision of the Commissioner of Police not to recommend to the Government of Bombay the introduction of either "4 Anna Taxis" or the reduction of the present fares from 8 As. to 6 As. came as a surprise to many who had been very anxiously awaiting the Commissioner's decision on the question. It was surprising because it was the Commissioner of Police himself who took the initiative in the matter of the introduction of Two Seater Taxis as well as the reduction of the present fares.

CHEAP TAXIS FROM MARCH NEXT?

From enquiries made, it now transpires that the Commissioner of Police will, in all probability, recommend to the Government of Bombay, the introduction of either "Four Anna Taxis" or reduction of the present fares from 8 As. to 6 As. from March 1, 1936. In this connection it is necessary to recall, that the Commissioner of Police wrote a letter on May 8 to the Taxi Owner inviting their opinion to the suggestion that the taxi fare should be reduced from 8 As. to 6 As.

Within six days, on May 14, another letter was circulated by the Commissioner of Police among the Taxi Owners in the City inviting their opinion about the introduction of "Two Seater Taxis" in the city with a fare of 4 As. per mile and a waiting charge of 12 p. Besides, these taxis were to carry only two passengers with no luggage whatever.

TAXIOWNERS' "NO."

The Taxi-Owners Association, which consists of two or three persons who own 75 to 100 taxis each and the majority of owner-drivers, met to consider the suggestion of the Commissioner. Though there were only one or two persons at the meeting, to move that the Commissioner's suggestion should be accepted, both the proposals were rejected by a huge majority and the same was intimated to the Commissioner of Police.

Next the Taxi Drivers Union also met and rejected both the proposals. A deputation consisting of some of the Taxi drivers and driver-owners on behalf of the Union waited on the Commissioner of Police on May 28, and explained their position in detail.

They told the Commissioner and other officers who were present at the interview, that it would be impossible for them to carry on if the fare were reduced from 8 As. to 6 As. specially when their taxis had been passed only recently, at an expense of at least Rs. 300 on each. Besides it would mean that they would have to incur further expenditure in buying new meters, immediately after having spent Rs. 300 each. They were totally opposed to the introduction of the "Two Seater Taxis" immediately, as it would hit them hard, and would even force them out of the profession.

CONDITION FOR REDUCTION.

They, however, were agreeable to reduce the Taxi fare from 8 As. to 6 As. at a later stage, provided that there would be only one passing a year instead of the two passings, one in March and the other in October, as at present. Secondly there ought to be no heavy test on the meters as at present.

This agreement to reduce the fare, meant a loss to the Government in that there would be only one passing a year instead of two. Besides the Meter test would not be so strict as is supposed to be at present.

The Commissioner of Police promised to consider the several aspects of the question that had been placed before him. He subsequently met some of the officers of the Motor Vehicles Department, and is stated to have gone into the whole question. The result was his letter of July 10 stating that "the Commissioner of Police" was not in favour of recommending to Government the introduction of either suggestion.

In this connection, it is stated that the Victoria Drivers, who are charging 6 As. per mile at present, decided at a general body meeting of their Union that in the event of the introduction of the "Two Seater Taxis" they would also reduce the fare to 4 As. per mile.

REASONS FOR POSTPONEMENT.

It is stated that the reasons for the postponement of the introduc-

Tribunal's Report Accepted

SIMLA, July 19.

A Gazette notification states: Accepting the recommendation of the special Tribunal which tried the election petition against Mr. Ebrahim Jaffer elected to the Assembly by the Bombay Central Division Rural (Mahomedan) constituency presented by Mr. Hossainbhai A. Laljee, the Governor-General declares the election void, and also directs Mr. Laljee to pay Rs. 8,230 to the Government as full costs for the trial of the petition, and Mr. Jaffer to pay the petitioner Rs. 6,281 only as costs. The Tribunal's report is also gazetted.—United Press.

of either "Two Seater Taxis" or reduction in the fare from 8 As. to 6 As. are mainly due to the fact that the taxi owners and drivers had incurred a heavy expenditure only a few days before the suggestion came and that they have not been given time to dispose of their own vehicles so that they might purchase or take on hire-purchase system "Two Seater Taxis".

If enough time is given to the taxi owners or owner-drivers, they are, it is reliably understood, prepared to reduce their fares from 8 As. to 6 As. on the above conditions. Besides, there seems to be a probability of the taxi owners and owner-drivers agreeing to "Two-Seater Taxis" provided there are certain restriction placed on the number of such taxis to be pilled in the city.

It is argued that though it might hit them hard at present, it would not come in their way, when those Taxis are introduced at a later stage as their sphere of use would be limited in as much as they cannot carry more than two passengers at a time and no luggage will be allowed.

Misapprehension Of Jockey Club Stewards

Censure On Harry Wragg Not Justified, Says Critic

It was announced recently that Harry Wragg had been warned by the stewards about his riding in the Derby. The stewards said—so far as one can judge, quite a remarkably long time after the event—that they understood he had pulled out in order that Bahram should have a clear passage.

Wragg admitted that he had pulled out, as he had been afraid that Bahram might shut in; but added that he had done nothing which could have jeopardised the chances of his own mount.

This is the bare report of what happened which appeared in the Press; but the subject raised is of far-reaching importance and is deserving of detailed examination. To examine it properly one has to go back to the beginning of a long story, writes Mr. David Learmouth in the "Saturday Review."

Until a few years ago an owner who ran more than one horse in a race was entitled to "declare to win" with one of them. This meant that in the final stages of the race, when it was obvious that the owner's other horse must beat every animal belonging to other owners, should his second string, by some miscalculation, be beating the horse with which the owner had declared to win, the rider of that second string could pull up his mount to allow the declared animal to pass the post first.

Declaration To Win

The rule did not mean that the second string could be pulled out of the winning position unless the jockey was certain that, in such an event, the owner's declared animal would win. Consequently, strictly according to the rules, the jockey of the second string was not entitled to take any course during the race with the object of securing his stable companion an unobstructed passage which would involve his going out of his way or doing anything else which would jeopardise his own mount's chance.

Unfortunately there were a number of cases in which the horse with which an owner had declared to win was beaten out of a place and the unexpected one won. This happened in nearly every case to the horses of owners who did not bet and whose animals had, consequently, not been formally tried at home. The occurrences were merely unfortunate; both the owners and trainers were absolutely above suspicion. But the more ignorant section of the public, disgruntled because they had lost their money, began to talk.

Other reasons have been given for the decision of the Jockey Club to rescind the rule allowing an owner to declare to win but undoubtedly this was the most cogent. Consequently, a declaration to win is now a thing of the past.

French Procedure

We must now turn to the betting side. In France, and in several other countries where the totalisator reigns supreme, when an owner runs more than one horse in a race all these are bracketed together and the backer is on any one of them that happens to win. Thus, had the Derby been run in France, backers of Bahram, Theft or Hairan would have won, whichever of the Aga Khan's trio had passed the post first. The price, naturally, would probably have been shorter.

In France there is little object in such a rule as that under which Wragg was censured, because the backers of Theft would be quite content so long as Bahram won. In England, however, this would be poor consolation, for they would have lost their money. The object of the rule should now be clear; what we have now to examine is whether a jockey who pulls out to let another horse through is necessarily jeopardising his own chance. The answer, of course, depends upon circumstances.

Not A Genuine Stayer

Suppose two bad horses are in the lead in a slow run race and you are behind the outside of the pair on a fast animal which is a poor stayer. Inside and next to you is the danger, an animal whose forte is staying power but which has not the pace of your own mount. In such a case the obvious policy is to remain in this position until the last possible moment in order to box in your rival until it is too late for his staying power to take away the speed of your own horse. To let your rival through in the early stages of such a race would definitely be jeopardising your own chance.

But if the race were run at a strong pace you might well be in the same position and decide that it was inadvisable to continue so fast. In such a case, even though by dropping back you let your rival through, you would be acting more judiciously than by continuing at a pace at which you knew your horse could not yet the course.

Theft, undoubtedly, is not a genuine stayer. At Watlington out of a mare from the Vena and Valens line, he could hardly be so. In a fast-run race therefore, Wragg would have to ride a very patient race indeed. The Derby of this year was not a fast run race, as Derbys go; but it was fast enough to find out the weakness in Theft. Wragg, therefore, was perfectly justified in his patience and in arguing to himself that taking a pull at the moment when he did would not prejudice his chances.

Judicial Aspect

If he had maintained his position, it is quite true that he might have hampered Fox on Bahram, though I doubt personally that this would have been so. But the rules do not say that a jockey must hamper if possible the smooth passage of the other horses belonging to his employer, and here it is, I think, that the judicial aspect of the case has been misapprehended by the stewards. Mr. Weatherby's phrase-making has, not for the first time, defeated them.

Five Arrested As Sequel To Assault On Pathan At Bhandup

(From Our Correspondent.) Five Pathans have been arrested by the Ghatkopar police in connection with the alleged assault on a Pathan watchman by name Patekhan in the outpost of the Battiwala's salt-pans at Bhandup on the night of July 15 last.

It appears Gulam Murad (35), a Customs peon residing at Bhandup, was severely rebuked by Patekhan, who was released on bail pending trial before the Furla Resident Magistrate on a charge of having assaulted the wife of Gulam Murad, the first suspect. Smarting under the insult by the former, the latter is alleged to have brought in a taxi the other four Pathan suspects from Dharavi on the night of the incident to Bhandup with a view to take revenge on Patekhan.

While Patekhan was taking his supper, the five suspects rushed into the outpost and severely belaboured him. In the melee that ensued several articles including earthen pots broke to pieces and lay scattered about in the room. Patekhan was immediately removed to the Kurla Dispensary for treatment of his injuries. The suspects were remanded to magisterial custody pending police investigation.

HYDERABAD (Dn.), July 18. At a recent meeting of the Hyderabad State Cricket Association it was decided to send to the Honorary Secretary of the All-India Cricket Board of Control a letter of protest against the cavalier treatment meted out to the local Association.

It may be recalled that Hyderabad, having eliminated Madras in the Inter-Provincial Tournament, was due to meet Bombay in the semi-final, and that, the local Association requested for some time to make arrangements for the fixture. This request was disregarded and the Hyderabad Association felt aggrieved at this attitude with the result that it had to scratch from the Tournament.—United Press.

The officials then gave it up. Prizes were awarded to both girls, Betty Campbell and Molly Summerhayes.

AERONAUTICAL TRAINING FOR INDIANS

Delhi Centre Will Give Course Of Lectures First

SIMLA, July 19. Further enquiries show that no applications for admission into the Aeronautical Centre of India will be admitted after August 20th. A Selection Board will then sit and decide on who are to be taken in for training. A provisional plan of the authorities of the Centre is to divide the students into six classes of 12 each and, for the first two months, give them lectures on the various aspects of the training they have to undergo. This process is expected to create the necessary psychology to enable the students to get full advantage from the practical training which will follow the course of lectures. The necessary staff for the training centre is sailing from England early in September. A new block added to the Y.M.C.A. New Delhi, will provide Board and Lodging for the students the monthly expenses for which may come to about Rs. 65 to Rs. 70. The fees for the Centre are Rs. 1,500 per annum per student and there will be extra charge for flying according to the number of hours of flying.—A.P.

INDO-JAP TREATY

Revision Of Agreement
Premature Yet, Says
Japan Consul

SIMLA, July 17.
The Consul-General for Japan has issued the following press note:-

"I read an article entitled 'The Outcry among piecegoods producers in Japan' which appeared in the 'Hindustan Times' on the 16th July.

The correspondent says that the Japanese authorities appear to have already approached the Government of India for a revision of the percentage of the quota fixed for bleached goods. But nobody, I think can imagine that it is possible for any of the parties of the Treaty to make any proposal for a revision of the Agreement at this moment, when only a year and a few months have elapsed since the conclusion of the Treaty.

PREMATURE CRITICISM

"Since the figures showing the progress of the shipments of Indian raw cotton to Japan and importation of Japanese piecegoods into India during the last year were published in the 'Indian Trade Journal' last month, some comments about the merit of the Agreement appeared in the Indian Press. I have been refraining from expressing my opinion on such comments because the above-mentioned figures are not only in a course to show the complete working of the quota in the whole year 1934-35, but also it is not sufficient to decide the merits of the Treaty by only one year's progress. Moreover, the comments regarding the importation of Japanese cotton piecegoods into Kathiawar States as well as the business of Fents and of Japanese cotton piecegoods to broader width rest on entire misunderstanding as it has already been pointed out by the representative of the Japanese Cotton Piecegoods Association in Bombay.

"The Agreement is now under perfect operation, thanks to the sincerity of both the authorities which deserve admiration of the parties interested.—United Press.

HYDERABAD (Dn.), July 19.
His Exalted Highness the Nizam's Government, which was the pioneer among Indian States to realise the importance of wireless, will soon have Wireless Service with the most modern equipment and working on the latest methods.

The site for the sub-station at Aurangabad has been approved, and two more sub-stations, one at Gulbarga and the other at Warangal will be shortly be selected. The three sub-stations will broadcast programmes in Marathi, Canarese and Telugu.

Sir Akbar Hydari, Finance Member, is keenly interested in wireless, and it was at his instance that Mr. Mahboob Ali's Experimental Station was taken over by the Government some time back.—United Press.

Prof. Ranga Sees Commissioner

TADPATRI, July 17.
Prof. Ranga who is here on a tour to study the famine conditions interviewed to-day the Famine Commissioner, Diwan Bahadur N. Gopalaswami Iyengar, at the Taluk Office, Tadpatri. Mr. Khudwai the District Collector and Mr. Stuart, the Executive Engineer, were also present.

Prof. Ranga urged the continuance of the relief works in view of the want of local demand for labour. The Commissioner assured that relief works would certainly be continued for as long as there was need for them and would certainly not be discontinued either suddenly or abruptly.—A. P.

ARE CHILDREN CORRECTLY FED?

New Light On Growth Of Children In Summer

Speaking at the annual general meeting of Virol Limited, Mr. A. E. Canney, Managing Director, said that considerable discussion had recently taken place in the Medical Press on the subject of malnutrition during the age of growth. He pointed out that "malnutrition" in this respect was, perhaps, an unfortunate word, since the layman understood it to arise from insufficiency of the total quantity of food consumed, whereas all the evidence indicated that the main factor was lack of balance in the diet.

It had been suggested that this lack of balance could be corrected by administering concentrated preparations of vitamins; but recent experiments had shown that this procedure gave no beneficial results. The correct method of attacking the problem of malnutrition was shown by the results of important investigations published in 'The Medical Officer' March 30th and April 6th, 1935.

RECENT REMARKABLE CONFIRMATION

In these investigations a number of children, all receiving an ordinary home diet, were divided into four groups. One group was given no special treatment, and the other three received respectively cod liver oil, halibut liver oil, or Virol. Those receiving halibut liver oil were also given sufficient milk to provide calories equivalent to the other supplements.

The groups were interchanged at intervals in such a way that at the end of the experiment each child had been on every treatment in turn. It was thus possible to compare the effects of the supplements on the growth-rate of children in a scientific test which eliminated individual differences in the children themselves.

In the result, it was found that cod liver oil, and halibut liver oil with milk, each showed some improvement, but not up to standard. In sharp contrast, the growth-rate produced by Virol was not merely better than that of the other supplements, but actually attained the figure usually accepted as ideal. This was direct proof that Virol was in itself adequate to restore normal growth and health to malnourished children. This implied that the deficiencies of their ordinary diet had been completely restored—a result extremely difficult for parents to achieve in any other way.

EXTRA WASTE OF ENERGY IN SUMMER

A further point arising out of the investigation referred to was the influence of the summer period on the children's growth-rate. During this period all the children lost weight, with the exception of those receiving Virol. The advent of Summer Time and long hours of daylight implied on the one hand a loss of sleep and appetite, and on the other hand, greatly increased opportunity for exercise and expenditure of energy generally. It was obvious that loss in weight must occur unless steps were taken to counter-balance this expenditure. The significant point was that the other supplements accomplished nothing in this direction, whereas the use of Virol resulted in the children's weight being maintained.

The Tournament conducted by the Hyderabad Dn. Cricket Association on the League system last year proved a protracted affair and it has therefore been decided that there should be a knock-out tournament for the minor teams the finalists entering the League Tournament to which only the senior Cricket Clubs are qualified. The knock-out tournament had attracted ten teams and will commence on the 19th instant.—United Press.

QUARREL OVER OFFICES AGAIN

Congress Reception Committee's Work Hampered

LUCKNOW, July 19.
Mutual jealousies and recriminations of the rival Congress groups of Lucknow are making the work of the Reception Committee of the National Congress more difficult.

It may be recalled that Pandit Govindballabh Pant and Acharya Narendraodeo, during their last visit to Lucknow gave an award which is now being repudiated by both the parties. As elections of officers of the Reception Committee are being held on the 21st July, the party in power finding no supporter locally is canvassing Mr. Furshot-tamdas Tandon of Allahabad for Chairmanship.

SAXENA'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Mohanlal Saxena who did not so far identify himself with any group and who returned here from Bengal yesterday points out in the course of a letter to the President of the City Congress Committee that the latter is being made a tool by interested persons who had no sacrifice to their credit and who were conspicuous by their absence during the fight and regrets that the award given by Pt. Pant and Acharya Narendraodeo is not being followed and the work of the Reception Committee is not being done properly.

It may be mentioned here that at the instance of Pt. Govindballabh Pant, Mr. Mohanlal Saxena's name has been put for Chairmanship of the Reception Committee by the other party who feels that no Congressman from outside should contest this office.—United Press.

Sensational Cures

The Scourge of our times—Impure blood is our enemy—Ravaged faces—Bad circulation—varicose veins—Rheumatism, Backache—Hardening of the arteries—Female ailments—How to purify the blood.

We are all, both men and women, more or less disposed to internal toxemia, which means that our blood is often vitiated by the impurities arising out of the imperfect assimilation of food. It is true that our ancestors also suffered from this complaint, especially from gout and rheumatism. But the excitement and strain of modern life have increased the possibilities of being a victim of this condition, even in the case of persons who are not so inclined by heredity. The ill-effects of this evil on the system are numerous and varied; the above list, although incomplete, mentions several common ailments—pains in the muscles or joints, headaches, neuralgia, in particular sciatica, and pains between the ribs, neurasthenia, skin diseases (acne, herpes, rash, eczema, psoriasis, carbuncles, syphilis, prurigo, erythema, eruptions on the face, premature baldness, etc.), disorders of the circulation (palpitation of the heart, varicose veins, phlebitis, piles, hardening of the arteries), kidney trouble (gravel, inflammation of the kidneys, albuminuria) and, where women are concerned, periodic headaches, painful menstruation, inflammation of the womb, salpingitis, tumour etc. But these varied symptoms should not let us overlook the one and only deep-seated cause of all these troubles, which is, as we have said, corrupt blood. It is, therefore, quite natural that the wonderful treatment known, in scientific circles, as "vegetal purifying of the blood," should have effected really extraordinary cures in cases quite different in appearance, but at the origin of which was always to be found a state of impure blood. Sores of long standing are healed for good in a few days; the most stubborn skin diseases got rid of for ever in a very short time; symptoms of hardening of the arteries are radically checked; the legs made supple and agile even after years of infirmity, not to say disability—in short, where-ever and whenever it is used RICHÉLET'S BLOOD PURIFIER is always successful, because it is not only the most effective, but also the most complete "purifier" of the blood produced by modern Science. After having made this clear, it only remains for us to give you a number of convincing proofs chosen from the several thousands of letters received already, and which are sent to us from all parts of the world. Read these and see how you can obtain relief from the greatest suffering:

8 years' Rheumatic suffering.

For 8 years, I suffered from rheumatism, and very painful sciatica and had taken a number of remedies without result, when I decided to try RICHÉLET'S BLOOD PURIFIER. It was a happy thought for, on taking the second bottle, I already felt relief from my suffering and could at last sleep and get some rest. After a complete treatment, my trouble has not returned and I can assure you that I am entirely and perfectly cured.

Yours gratefully, M. E. Camus,
8, rue Antoine-Blanc, Marseille, France.

Stubborn Eczema disappears

I was afflicted with persistent eczema and intolerable itching, and I had tried many remedies in vain: only RICHÉLET'S Blood purifier has completely rid me of my complaint and made life possible for me. I am very grateful to you, and I authorize you to publish my letter.

M. Marcel Rouffaud, 140, avenue de Fontainebleau, Kremlin-Bicêtre (Seine), France.

His legs were heavy as lead.

For more than a year, my legs were as heavy as lead and I suffered from violent pain. I could neither walk nor work; I no longer slept, and grew weaker every day. After having tried in vain a heap of remedies, I used RICHÉLET'S BLOOD PURIFIER. A month later I was cured; I could walk without sticks and take up again my work and all my other occupations.

M. V. Bas, Attendant, Hôpital de St-Macaire (Gironde), France.

In India also, many people have obtained excellent results from RICHÉLET'S BLOOD PURIFIER. Through discretion, we do not publish their names. The booklet dealing with the RICHÉLET treatment will be sent to you, free of charge, on application.

RICHÉLET Laboratories, 6, rue de Belfort, BAYONNE (B.-P.). France. To be had everywhere, or from the sole agents:

RICHÉLET Agency, P.O. Box 817, Bombay.

Blood Circulation restored to normal

I suffered from a bad circulation and, in particular, from varicose veins, which used to become worse when I was tired. I took a cure of RICHÉLET'S Blood Purifier, and it saved me. First of all, I lost over 3 stone in weight, my menses became normal, my headaches disappeared, and the sores on my legs healed; today, I am in perfect health, and I express all my gratitude to you.

Mme Therese Alvarez, 6, rue des Halles,
Bagueres-de-Bigorre (Hautes-Pyrenees), France.

No more pains nor lumbago.

After having tried everything in vain, to ease the pains and lumbago that made me suffer terribly, I took a cure of RICHÉLET'S Blood Purifier. To-day, and this is indeed a relief—I have no more pains nor lumbago.

M. Paulin Defaye,
22, rue Bourgon, Paris, (13e) France.

SI suffered from Eczema.

I suffered from eczema and terrible itching, and I was in despair, but I am glad to inform you that all this is now a thing of the past. Two cures of RICHÉLET'S Blood Purifier were sufficient to rid me of my complaint. Please be assured of all my gratitude for this unhopied relief.

Mme. Veuve Pogeuen,
a Lamoignon, Lorient (Morbihan), France.

He saved his legs.

I suffered terribly for over three years from bad circulation of the blood, which left me with varicose veins and deep ulcers, and had tried in vain a number of remedies and it is only thanks to RICHÉLET'S BLOOD PURIFIER that I have been able to save my legs. To-day, no more pains, no more congestion, quiet restful nights and the legs of a young man. Yours sincerely,

M. Dachiout,
117, rue Nationale, Boulogne-sur Mer, France.

Rheumatism and Sciatica cured

I suffered terribly from sciatica and rheumatism in the arms, which—for over three years—prevented me from working, but RICHÉLET'S Blood Purifier cured me completely and enabled me to resume my occupations. This is a marvellous remedy for sufferers who are in urgent need of speedy relief.

Mme. Nidiau, a Gansvrenille, par Mollans (Haute-Saône), France.

Hereditary Ill-Health.

Owing to hereditary disposition to such complaints, I often suffered from dizziness, headaches, neuralgia, backache, and these ailments became worse after I had a baby; I also had varicose veins and my legs used to swell after the slightest fatigue. To-day, thanks to RICHÉLET'S BLOOD PURIFIER, all this is a thing of the past, as I am rid completely and for good of all these complaints.

Mme. A. Carret, 43, rue Fondary, Paris (15e), France.

Through discretion, we do not publish their names. The booklet dealing with the RICHÉLET treatment will be sent to you, free of charge, on application.

by Manchester are much higher to admit of any business of importance. Undertone in spot prices has remained rather easy and forward business has been possible at the moment.

JAPANESE YARNS.

Although the prices have remained more or less unchanged, the undertone in this class of yarns has remained fairly steady and turnover has been satisfactory. There has been increasing demand for Grey Yarns such as 40, 2/42s, 60s, and 2/60s, etc., both for ready as well as forward deliveries, and on account of much higher rates of English Yarns, Japanese and Shanghai yarn find good sales and stocks are getting exhausted. In case of mercerised yarns, there have been further arrivals of fresh consignments, but on account of satisfactory demand the prices have been maintained at about last week's level. Sarnipin has remained almost unchanged with minor fluctuations whilst Exchange have remained steady.

ART SILK YARNS.

There has been no change in Italian yarns during the week whilst demand has continued to remain on a moderate scale owing to very keen Japanese competition. As regards Japanese Yarns, demand has been fairly good and inspite of further heavy arrivals by incoming steamers the prices have shown slight improvement and undertone at the close has remained very firm. As for forward positions, Import Houses have slightly raised their limits and on account of heavy sales far ahead, no fresh business of any importance has been possible. Demand for delustrated yarns has been very satisfactory whilst in case of double yarns only Japanese qualities find good sales on account of much lower rates.

INDIAN YARNS.

Our Mills have been showing a firm attitude and have been quoting higher prices probably owing to very steady cotton position. The undertone in prices of almost all Indian Yarns has remained fairly steady but as there are yet no signs of any material improvement, dealers do not show much inclination to make forward purchases at higher rates. It is reported from almost all consuming districts that owing to high level of yarn prices, consumers are hit very hard in as much as they are not able to get any better prices of their cloth where as they are asked to pay much higher prices for their yarns. We, however, expect the demand to improve if cotton prices remain steady at about the present level particularly when the monsoon continues to prove satisfactory.

To Issue Cheap Tickets

(From A Correspondent)

JAMNAGAR, July 15.
Rai Saheb Girdharlal D. Menta, Manager and Traffic Superintendent of the Jamnagar and Dwarke Railway met by appointment the merchants at Rajkote on Saturday last. Although it was raining very heavily, the leading merchants of this emporium of Kathiawad came over to the meeting and discussed the question of rates and fares and the facilities required by the trade at Rajkote so far as the Jamnagar and Dwarke Railway was concerned.

The Manager heard them very patiently and agreed to consider their request for reduction of rates favourably and also to give further facilities for sugar traffic during the monsoon.

With a view to encourage merchants and others to travel freely in connection with their business between Rajkote and Jamnagar he agreed to issue return tickets at a fare and a half for return journey available for 48 hours.

Those present were very pleased with the result of this meeting and thanked the Manager for coming and meeting them and helping them in developing business. The meeting was arranged by Mr. Chhotalal Kothari, President of the Kathiawar Chamber of Commerce and was very successful.

MISAPPROPRIATED
SCHOOL FEES

Joseph Antone Fernandez, a peon in the Christ Church High School, Byculla, was sentenced to three months' hard labour on a charge of criminal breach of trust as a servant in respect of Rs. 219, by Mr. I. S. Haji at the Mazgaon Court, Bombay.

Mr. C. W. Bigwood, the Headmaster of the School who was the complainant, stated that in December last he had given Rs. 179 to be deposited in the Imperial Bank. The accused, however, credited it only in January.

In May, the complainant's clerk informed him that certain students had not paid their fees for May. Their parents were then communicated with. Then it was revealed that the accused had collected the amounts from the parents. He gave the peon some time to make good the amount, but as he failed to do so the prosecutions were launched.

The accused pleaded guilty to the charge.

In sentencing the accused to three months' hard labour, the Magistrate (Mr. I. S. Haji) said he was not inclined to treat the offence leniently.

"I can very well imagine a serious situation," he continued, "that may arise between parents and their children when the latter pay the fees and the former are informed by the Principal of the school that the amount has not been paid. Such situations are timely to cause breach of love and confidence between parents and their innocent children."

The Queen received Mrs. Karslake at Buckingham Palace. She is the wife of Major General H. Karslake of Quetta.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE WITHOUT CALOMEL

and you'll jump out of bed feeling you could push a bus over

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salt, liquid paraffin, fatty drinks, palatable laxatives or harsh purgatives, and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels, and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason why you feel rotten is your liver. It should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bed-lazy and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in pimples. Your head aches and you feel rotten. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those famous, sure-acting CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. Stand out for Carter's Pills, the famous sure-health kind. Look for the name Carter's on the package.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEWS

(From Our Special Correspondent)
Bombay, July 19

MONEY. Money market was distinctly easy during the week under review, day to day loans being available round 1 1/2 per cent. The factor accounting for this situation was the return of large amount of funds to trade centres. Another factor conducive to this tendency was the announcement regarding the discontinuance of the sale of Treasury bills. The Treasury Bill maturities were Rs. 1 crore and renewals aggregated a like amount. The average rate of acceptance of tenders was Rs. 1-11-0 per cent per annum. The following are the fixed deposit rates:—One month to months 2 per cent and six months 2 1/4 per cent.

BANK RETURN. The Bank Return for the week ending 12th instant shows an increase of Rs. 44.07 lacs in the total Note Issue against the return of an equivalent amount of rupee coin to the Issue Department. The Item, Notes in Circulation showed a reduction of Rs. 197.77 lacs which is occasioned by a transfer of the said amount plus the balance on total issue to the Banking Department. The marked changes in the latter department are an increase of Rs. 294.68 lacs in the Bankers' deposits and an increase of Rs. 4.03 lacs and Rs. 4.46 lacs in Bills Payable and Other Liabilities respectively. There is a rise of Rs. 8 lacs in Balances held abroad and a decline of Rs. 5.68 lacs in other Assets. Investments showed a small increase of Rs. 0.65 lacs.

Consolidated statement of the position of the Banks scheduled to the Reserve Bank of India Act as at the close of business on Friday the 5th July 1935.

1. Demand Liabilities in	Rs. 109,80,69,600
2. Times Liabilities in
India	Rs. 97,72,45,000
3. Cash in India:—
Notes	Rs. 4,82,13,000
Rupees	Rs. 41,36,000
Subsidiary coin	Rs. 20,67,000
4. Balances with the Reserve Bank of India	Rs. 21,47,93,000
5. Advances in India	Rs. 102,84,74,000
6. Bills discounted in
India	Rs. 3,90,40,000

It is gratifying that the Reserve Bank of India is publishing this communication since hitherto reliable information regarding such important data was not available to the public.

GILT-EDGED MARKET. Conditions in gilt-edged were quiet but steady. The turnover was small and price movements were within narrow limits. The discontinuance of the sale of Treasury bills and the present cheapness of money are taken by the market as indicating that the Government of India will announce the issue of a new rupee loan in the near distant future. The report that the subscription list of the London Electric Transport Corporation's 2 1/2 per cent guaranteed debenture stock of Rs. 22 million at 497 for purposes of railway electrification closed within 65 minutes was interpreted as a bullish factor. The 3 per cent new sterling loan issued on the 11th July attracted a large subscriptions amounting to 472 million. Applicants over 2,500 received 14 per cent and under 4,500 nil. The New Loan opened at 3/8 to 5/8 premium but later it was quoted 3/8 per cent premium. All these indications point to very healthy tone in the market. 3 1/2 per cent Rupee paper opened at Rs. 95.6, but in mid-week receded to Rs. 95.2 owing to cash advices from London. Later it recovered to Rs. 95.5 and closed at Rs. 95.4. The medium term loans showed small price movements. Demand for investment in these scrips was good with small sellers. Other scrips showed little price changes. 3 per cent bonds due 1941 improved slightly to Rs. 101.5 and 3 1/2 per cent 1947-50 loan remained steady at Rs. 102.16. 4 per cent 1960-70 Loan showed no alteration at Rs. 107.4. 4 1/2 per cent 1955-60 loan gained about 4 annas to Rs. 113.12. 5 per cent 1939-44 loan was placed at Rs. 108.8, 1940-43 at Rs. 109.13 and 45-55 loan at Rs. 117.15. 5 1/2 per cent 1938-40 loan closed at Rs. 108.7. 6 1/2 per cent Bom. Dev. Loan is quoted at Rs. 101.3 and 6 1/2 per cent Tr. Bonds at Rs. 100/9.

The Bank of Netherlands has reduced its discount rate from 3 1/2 per cent to 3 per cent as from 17th July 1935.

EXCHANGE. Sterling exchange was steady with sellers of ready T.T. at 1/6 3/32 and buyers at 1/6 1/8, occasional business passing at the middle rate. Banks bought a fair amount of gold for export. Merchandise export bills were, however, small in number. Forward positions were also steady, the following being the quotations:—1/6 7/64 up to end of Aug. 1/6 3/32 up to end of November and 1/6 1/16 for December.

The foreign exchanges in the London market experienced comparatively wide fluctuations during this week. The New York-London cross rate opened at dol 4.95 1/2 and rose mid-week to dol 4.96 3/8, but receded and closed at dol 4.95 3/4. The easiness of the dollar in terms of sterling is probably accounted for by the same factor which was operative last week, namely remittances from the U.S.A. in payment for their silver purchases in London. The London-Paris rate moved in sympathy, it opened at 74.54 and improved to 74.91 and thereafter fluctuating between this level and 74.69 closed at 74.63. The news regarding the measures taken by the French Government to balance the budget probably tended to steady the Paris-London Cross rate towards the close. The Belga and the Italian lira finished at 29.32 and 59.90 respectively.

GOLD. Gold was steady on the whole and prices were maintained with narrow movements. The rate for ready gold quoted Rs. 34/12/9 per tola at the opening, but in sympathy with the rise in New York-London rate, receded to Rs. 34/12/0. However it recovered mid-week to Rs. 34/12/6 and closed at Rs. 34/12/3. Banks bought a fair amount for export. Stocks in the local market are estimated at some 4 lacs tolas, while the daily output is unchanged at about 3000 tolas. Arrivals from up-country are unchanged at some 8000 tolas a day. The price of sovereigns moved in sympathy and closed at Rs. 22/7/6 and Rs. 22/6/6 for ready and forward respectively. In London the quotation for the metal moved between 141/0 1/2 and 140/9 1/2, closing at 140/11 1/2. Last week's shipment of gold per s.s. "Mantua" amounted to Rs. 83.90 lacs. The highest and lowest rates in our market were Rs. 34/12/9 and Rs. 34/12/0 for ready, Rs. 34/13/3 and Rs. 34/12/0 for 17th July settlement and Rs. 34/14/6 and Rs. 34/13/0 for 15th August settlement. The total imports during the week amounted to Rs. 238,429 in bar and coin.

SILVER. The silver market displayed a weak tendency following advices from other markets. The rate for ready opened at Rs. 73/0 but dropped to Rs. 71/9 on Saturday, following news of London closing which was down by 13/16d. from 31/18d to 30/5/16d for spot. Though some purchases on the American Treasury's account were reported at lower levels the market showed no signs of marked recovery and the rate receded to Rs. 70/12 on Tuesday. At the bottom rates, fluctuations were narrow. The report from the U. S. A. that Senator McCarran and his colleagues are making a further attempt to define the American silver policy by fresh legislation had no perceptible effect on the market. However, further developments are awaited with interest. Stocks on hand continue heavy estimated at some 32,000 bars. The daily output is poor at about 5 bars. The highest and lowest rates in London were 31/18d and 30/3/16d for ready and 31/5/16d and 30/5/16d for forward. In Shanghai the dollar eased from 1/7 1/8d to 1/6 3/4d. The highest and lowest rates in our market were Rs. 73/0 and 70/12 for ready, Rs. 73/2 and Rs. 70/14 for 20th July settlement and Rs. 73/7 and Rs. 71/3 for 19th August settlement. The total imports during the week amounted to 304 Bars and Rs. 142,756 in coin.

SHARES. Conditions on the Stocks Exchange were quiet but dull during the period under review. The market opened steady on Saturday, but later developed a weak tendency which persisted throughout except on Wednesday when prices showed a spasmodic recovery owing to bear covering. The reason for

Mills Refuse To Pay Current Prices

Bombay, July 18
Messrs. P. Chrysal and Co have issued the following report:—
We have seen a dull and uninteresting market during the last week, and prices have shown a tendency to sag through lack of any fresh support. Recent cables lead us to believe that there is increasing friction in political circles in America between the Federal party, who are pledged to higher commodity prices by any means, and the opposition, who are seeking to upset their programme by proving their methods to be unconstitutional. Another test case has been given in favour of a Mill Company, who refused to pay the processing tax, the ruling of the Court being that processing taxes collected under the A. A. A. are unconstitutional. The case is expected to go to the Supreme Court in the Autumn, and in the meanwhile it cannot be wondered at if the market displays a certain amount of hesitancy and uncertainty, when traders are left in doubt as to what is, and what is not, constitutional. Weather reports received during the week have been distinctly favourable, and crop killers have not as yet been given an opportunity for fabricating any of their scares which are usually a feature of this season of the year. The local market has continued to rule comparatively stronger than America, so much so that local Mills are refusing to pay current prices and there has been a considerable falling off in the ready demand in consequence. Certain foreign cottons, however, have received more attention as they can now be purchased at a reasonable premium on the April/May Broach contract. The market generally does not appear to us to be in a particularly healthy condition and a reaction, which we consider to be overdue, is probable in the near future. Short sales, however, are dangerous, especially in this market where the statistical position is very strong, unless they are made for a quick turnover only, and we therefore prefer to keep square position with a view to purchasing at a lower level.

AMERICAN COTTON CROP

Weekly Weather Report

The Official Government weekly weather report, states that the weather was generally favourable with temperatures moderate and rainfall light, except in the Atlantic area. In Texas the crop is improving, where in South Texas bolls are opening and picking is progressing. The Central belt along with Oklahoma has made good progress except the North Central and East Oklahoma portions which are backward. In the Eastern belt rains locally are favouring weevil but for the most part good progress is recorded and conditions are improving.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET

New York, July 19 With the lack of fresh incentive the market was less confident with renewed fears of the legality of A. A. A. exercising somewhat depressing influence. Consequently prices developed a downward tendency on foreign and local selling coupled with commission house liquidation but the decline was checked by the talk of 12 cent loan for the new crop. Trading in October commenced at 11.65 i.e. unchanged from previous closing. The market was quiet and easier under the influence of lower Liverpool advices and foreign selling which forced October down to 11.60. At this stage, some steadiness ensued but eventually some renewed liquidation and falling appeared with October further falling to 11.57. The New York cotton market finally closed at 11.59 with a decline of 6 points.

Smart Drop In Tata Steel Shares

Persistent Selling Pressure In An Oversold Market

BULLS HOLDING ALOOF

Bombay, July 19. Bear operators are busy spreading all rumours to serve their own interest and the market being hesitant, there remains utter absence of any support. It is said that some prominent operators are selling out their holding in order to meet their losses in silver. This report is baseless as one can see that the Silver Settlement is falling due next week while sale proceeds of shares will be paid after three weeks.

BEARS DEPRESS PRICES

The market opened steady to-day but immediately assumed a declining tendency on heavy selling by bear operators and nervous unloading. The market is under the influence of operations of professional bears. Fundamental factors guiding and shaping the course of values are eclipsed under selling pressure and Bulls have no nerves to support the market.

There was a continuous flow of selling orders which kept on depressing prices till the close. A professional jobber is supposed behind the present decline.

WEAKNESS IN STEEL SHARES

Tata Steel shares were the main centre of pronounced weakness where extensive selling was in evidence. The weakness of Steel shares had salutary effect on other sections but Hydro-Electric shares did not suffer much.

MARKET OVERSOLD

The market is becoming oversold and one-sided orderly decline is creating doubts among investors. In fact every decline to new low levels gives hopes of lower levels and these hopes of buying cheap is restraining any support. Present prices are low enough as compared with high level reached during the middle of the last month. It is dangerous to remain short as the market is oversold.

DULL, DEPRESSED AND DEMORALIZED

Professional Bulls are holding aloof with a view to get in at low levels which explains the reason of absence of buying. Under the state it can be expected that till the commencement of trading for the next month, the market may remain dull, depressed and demoralized.

Attempt To Get Cheap Renewal Of Lease For Yacht Club

Land Worth Rs. 250 Per Square Yard To Be Let Out For 30 Years At Rs. 32!

OPPOSITION OF INDIAN MEMBERS OF BOMBAY PORT TRUST BOARD

BOMBAY, Friday.

The Board of the Bombay Port Trust is in the throes of a heated discussion over the question of the renewal of the lease of the Bombay Yacht Club for the ground it occupies at Apollo Bunder.

The point at issue has created acute tension with the Indian members ranged on one side and the Europeans on the other.

What has provoked this situation is the attempt on the part of the Club Committee to secure now a renewal of the lease, which normally expires in 1947, at a rental far below the prevailing rates for land in the area.

They are asking for the renewal for another 30 years at Rs. 32 per square yard, whereas the present market value of land in the area varies from Rs. 100 to Rs. 250 per square yard.

The discussion was adjourned on Wednesday last, after Mr. Manu Subedar raised the question whether members of the Board who are members of the Club would be entitled to vote on the question.

The Chairman said he would give his ruling before the voting took place, but in the meanwhile, it is learnt, that the European Trustees have resigned their membership of the Club—to be re-elected, presumably, after the matter has been disposed of.

INDIANS EXCLUDED

The Bombay Yacht Club, which is run by Europeans and is reserved exclusively for their use, Indians not being allowed to enter the premises even for sight-seeing, took the lease of 12,936 square yards of land belonging to the Bombay Port Trust just on the sea-shore at Apollo Bunder, near the gateway of India as early as in 1897, for a period of fifty years at a very nominal rate of one rupee three annas per square yard.

The lease expires in 1947 twelve years hence.

The Yacht Club Committee have, however, written a letter to the Bombay Port Trust praying for permission to renew the lease for another thirty years at the rental of rupees 32 per square yard.

What Prompted It

The Committee have specifically mentioned that they are willing to pay enhanced rate from the current year. What prompted the Yacht Club to make this offer may be easily guessed and some Indian members scent behind this move, political considerations also along with other reasons.

Firstly, the present market value in that area varies from 100 to 250 rupees per square yard.

The Regal Cinema which is at a stone's throw distance from the Yacht Club but without a sea front has been paying a rental of Rs. 250 per square yard for the front portion of the theatre and Rs. 150 per square yard for the back portion to the Government who own that land.

The Yacht Club area which has a far better site is bound to be quoted higher rates. The Indian members state that they would be too glad to agree to the Yacht Club's request of the renewal of the lease if they were willing to pay the present market rate or at least pay Rs. 100 per sq. yard.

Political Motive

The political motive attributed to Europeans is that the latter want to make sure of their position so that any future Indian minister who may hold the portfolio relating to the Port Trust, etc. may not tamper with their lease in 1947 at the time of its expiry by demanding very high rates of Rs. 300 or Rs. 400 per square yard if the value goes up by then.

At this week's Board meeting Mr. Manu Subedar raised a point of order whether members of the Board of the Port Trust who are either serving on the Committee of the Yacht Club or are ordinary members of the Club, would be allowed to vote on the question before the Board. He drew the attention of the chair to the section 144 of the Bombay Trust Act prohibiting interested members from participating in voting.

The Chairman adjourned the meeting to next Tuesday, promising to give his ruling on Mr. Subedar's point of order at the time of voting.

A special meeting of the Indian Merchants' Chamber and East India Cotton Association is being summoned to reconsider the issue and give a mandate to their representatives on the Port Trust Board on this question.

Timely Precaution

In the meanwhile, it is learnt that the European trustees who are either members of the Committee or ordinary members of the Club have taken the timely precaution of resigning from the club in order that, whatever the Chairman's ruling may be, they will be free to vote on the question.

ADMINISTRATION OF COCHIN HARBOUR

Conference To Discuss Problem Of Civil & Criminal Jurisdiction

COCHIN, July 19.

Apropos of the announcement appearing in the press regarding the Cochin Harbour Conference which will meet in the third week of August in Simla, the "United Press" learns that the most outstanding question that will be discussed will be the knotty problem of civil and criminal jurisdiction. Before the Simla Conference there will be a preliminary conference before August 17, and for the time being Cochin has been selected to be the venue for the same. The Conference will be held at the "Bhagatji Residency". The Government of India will not participate in that Conference.—United Press.

KAMALA NEHRU'S HEALTH

Extremely Satisfactory Progress After Serious Operation

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

PRAGUE.

Mrs. Kamala Nehru, whom I had opportunity to visit recently in Berlin, is making extremely satisfactory progress after her operation. The operation was of a highly specialised character, growths at places between the chest board and lung having to be cut and burnt. The major ones have been successfully burnt and Professor Unverricht, who carried the operation is hopeful that the one or two remaining ones may most probably collapse automatically. If they do not, a second operation may be necessary, which in any case, the Professor now considers, will be only a minor one. Professor Unverricht is so satisfied with the progress, that he considers that in six weeks time Mrs. Nehru will be able to the present rate to

RIOT NEAR LAHORE

Two Factions Of Farmers Fall Out Over Payment Of Money For Land

LAHORE, July 17.

A riot between two factions of Muslim agriculturists in which spears, tokas and axes were freely used resulting in four persons being more or less seriously injured occurred at village Vernala, a few miles from Lahore.

It appears that about 15 bigas of land had been mortgaged with one Ghulam by a Muslim Zamindar. The latter was actually tilling the land and was paying a lump sum to Ghulam annually as a contract.

This year he failed to pay the annual money and Ghulam ejected him from his land. Yesterday when Ghulam with his men were ploughing the land a party of more than a dozen persons armed with deadly weapons attacked Ghulam and his men. Ghulam and three of his men were injured and removed to hospital. The raiders retreated when some neighbours rushed to the rescue of Ghulam.

A case under section 147 (rioting) has been registered against 12 persons.

CAPTURING LOCAL BODIES IN U. P.

Free Them From Executive Control, Urges Congress Civic Board

ALLAHABAD, July 19.

It is understood that the manifesto which is going to be issued by the Civil Board of the Provincial Congress Committee for contesting the Municipal and District Board elections in this province, will emphasize two points: (1) that the party should try to free the Boards from the control of the Executive, namely the Collectors and the Commissioners and make them directly responsible to the Ministers of Local Self-Government; (2) the highest pay of an employee of the Board should not be above Rs. 500 as has been adopted by the Indian National Congress.—United Press.

move about fairly freely. That he fears no complication is shown by the fact that the Professor is leaving for America this week with no anxiety about the patient. Professor Unverricht will be returning in about three weeks time, when the final decision, whether another operation is necessary will be made on the basis of X ray photographs and reports, for which arrangements have been made. In few days, Mrs. Nehru is expected to leave for the health resort, Badenweiler, near Freiburg close to the Swiss frontier. After the doctor's final decision, she will be moving for convalescence to Switzerland.

NATHIAGALLI, July 18.

The Kalpani has breached its bank near Hoti submerging the village for six hours causing damage to four hundred katcha houses, hundred shops, five mandis and the Islamia school. A village of 150 houses in Dera Ismail Khan district has been flooded washing away hundred and damaging the remaining fifty. No definite loss of life at present is known except five corpses seen in the river near Khush Algarh.—A.P.

RUMOUR OF R.A.F. BASE FOR ALLAHABAD

Press Reports Denied

(From Our Correspondent.)

ALLAHABAD, July 19.

Considerable amusement has been caused in Civil and Military circles here at the sensational report broadcast by a News Agency appearing in some papers that Allahabad is likely to be made the headquarters of the Royal Air Force and that the Viceroy is coming here to examine the possibilities of such a change and to select the ground for this purpose. The Viceroy's programme of visit to Allahabad was fixed long before the Quetta earthquake and the report is considered baseless.

FIRE DESTROYS 20 HOUSES

Troops Help To Bring Nowshera Blaze Under Control

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

SIMLA, July 19.

A serious fire broke out in the Hindu quarter of Nowshera City at about 1-45 p.m. on July 15.

Local inhabitants found that they were unable to deal effectively with the fire and at 2-15 p.m. at the request of the Civil authorities a section, of the 5th Field Company of the K.G.O. Bengal Sappers and Miners arrived on the scene. They at once started to clear the area and at the request of the Civil authorities to demolish some neighbouring buildings in order to prevent fire spreading. They were joined a little later by troops of the 2/15th Punjab Regiment and a detachment of the 4th Field Brigade Royal Artillery who assisted the sappers in their work throughout the remainder of the day.

At one time a Sikh Gurdwara was in danger of catching fire but it was isolated by demolitions and saved.

The Peshawar Fire Brigade arrived later in the afternoon and by nightfall the fire had been reduced to smouldering ruins. There was no loss of life and most of the movable property was saved. About 20 houses in all were destroyed.

The prompt assistance given by the troops was undoubtedly instrumental, (says an official note) in gaining early control of the fire and limiting its effects.

During the night detachments of the 1st Bn Duke of Wellingtons Regiment and the 3-2nd Punjab Regiment were encamped on the outskirts of the city in order to render any further assistance required.

ALL OVER A LEOPARD

Section 144 Promulgated And Matter Brought In Court

(From Our Correspondent.)

MADRAS, July 17.

Whose is the Leopard? Dr. Subbarayan's or Mr. Chinnathambi Pillai's? Dr. Subbarayan, the ex-Chief Minister of Madras Government "shall have it" declared Mr. N. C. Thomas a Sub-Divisional Magistrate of Salun before whom the villagers of Puttur, in Dr. Subbarayan's estate, preferred an appeal.

The leopard originally was Dr. Subbarayan's "subject". In the villagers' attempt to capture it the beast ran and hid itself in a cave in Andepatty which belonged to Mr. Chinnathambi Pillai. Villagers of Puttur tried to get at the beast but the others did not allow them to interfere with the beast. The Taluk Magistrate fearing trouble promulgated an order under Section 144 Cr. P. C.

In the appeal the villagers of Puttur succeeded and I now understand they are getting ready to kill the beast.

NEW CAMP FOR REFUGEES IN QUETTA

Tents And Huts With New Sanitary And Electric Fittings Under Erection

(From A Correspondent.)

QUETTA, (By Mail.)

It is known that the race course on which is located the main refugee camp, is very malarious as soon as the rain set in, especially in the months of August and September: because it is situated near marshy lands which breed swarms of anopheles. To prevent an epidemic outbreak of malaria a new camp is being prepared by sappers and miners about 2½ miles away near the old Brewery on good sloping ground. The medical authorities declare this an ideal site for a camp as it is on high ground. It is far better than the present site and cooler even during the hottest part of the day. The sappers and miners are laying out the camp according to the latest ideas of sanitary town planning.

NEW CAMP.

There will be two rows of 160 tents with a 30 ft road between them flanked on either side by a 60 ft road, along which are built latrines, urinals and bathing places. There are 5 latrines, 4 urinals and 3 bathing places for every 100 persons. Each block of tent space is 45 square ft. Later on huts will be built 60 ft. X 16 ft. which will have heating arrangement for the winter. As these huts are built they will take the place of the tents. Two tanks with a capacity of 16,000 gallons of water each will supply the refugee population. New pipe lines have been laid with tanks which will look after the water requirements of the camp.

FLY PROOF HUTS.

A row of fly proof huts have been put up for the shops, made of wood and corrugated roofing. An electric plant is being put up to supply the whole camp with electric light. At the upper end of the camp and in a part of the lower, there will be blocks for larger tents.

Every effort is being made to make the camp thoroughly sanitary and secure from any attack of disease. Although news was given out late last night that the refugee camp and race course will be evacuated next Thursday, the proclamation was unauthorised. As a matter of fact, the camp will not be ready, probably, for another ten days. Some tents will be pitched to-morrow and the ground will be floored with mud so as to make it even and clean. As this mud dries to give a good clean flooring, people will be moved into the tents.

At the lower end of the camp a portion has been marked out for the police guard of the camp.

The mischievous rumour that has been spread that the place is infested with snakes and scorpions is completely untrue, as not one has been seen during the six weeks the sappers and miners have been working on the preparation of the new camp. Somebody also put about the rumour that if there were another earthquake or land slide, big rocks and boulders from the adjacent hills, which are more than a mile away, will roll on the camp and destroy it. This is a physical impossibility as the bigger slope is away from the camp and if any boulders were ever to reach the plains, it is most likely, they would go down away on the right hand side. But such an eventuality is not possible as there is a nullah or ditch at the foot of the hills over which it would be impossible for stones or boulders to come. Were the whole hill, which is not very high, to fall down, yet the rocks could not possibly reach the camp. In fact most of the officers' tents will be pitched at the foot end of the camp, which is nearer to the foot of the hills, a mile and a half away.

TRADE UNIONS AND NATIONAL CONGRESS

Calcutta Conference Plea For Co-operation

CALCUTTA, July 19.

An informal meeting of the prominent Trade Unionists of Bengal held with Mr. R. S. Ruiker, the President of the All-India Trade Union Congress in the chair, discussed the question of unity between the Trade Union Congress and the National Federation of Trade Unions.

The opinion was in favour of organisational unity with the Federation and the point will be discussed at the forthcoming joint committee meeting to be held at Bombay on August 4.

Another item discussed was the question of co-operation of Trade Union Congress with the Indian National Congress. The meeting favoured some sort of co-operation with the Congress.—United Press.

BEHRAMJI MALABARI & JALBHAI BHARDA

Tributes To Their Services In Cause Of Reform And Education

A large number of Parsees including many ladies assembled at Dadar Parsee Colony Fire-temple to celebrate the anniversaries of the late Behramji M. Malabari and Jalbhai D. Bharda which took place last week. Mr. Rustam B. Paymaster presided.

Mr. Paymaster at the outset stated that the great social reformer, Mr. Malabari died in 1912 and the great Educationalist, Mr. Jalbhai D. Bharda passed away nine years thereafter during the same week. He then recounted at length the services rendered by Mr. Malabari in the cause of Hindu Social reform. He carried on a campaign both in India and England advocating the increase in the age of consent. He was opposed to infant marriage and enforced widowhood.

The late Mr. Jalbhai Bharda said that the speaker was an ideal educationist. He was devoted heart and soul to the spread of culture and had been connected with several institutions. Mr. Ardeshtir B. Homavazir then, addressed the gathering.

Dr. Jehangir M. Pavri gave a sermon on an ideal Zoroastrian explaining several tenets of his religion.

The gathering then dispersed.

R. S. Ruiker, the president of the All-India Trade Union Congress, the case was adjourned till Monday next.—United Press.
